BAZAAR THANK YOU'S

I'd like to thank so many people for their hard work behind the scenes and for their personal donations: those who purchased and sold raffle tickets, the kitchen crew and servers, helpers in kids' area, crafters, wreath makers, bakers, those who purchased or crafted raffle gift baskets, those who reached out to local businesses for our silent auction, setter-uppers and taker-downers, and those who helped anywhere and in any way they were needed. Thank you for helping us to celebrate community! Congratulations to the winners of all our wonderful raffles.

FR. KRIS' KORNER

Ah, the wearin' of the purple at Mass is back once again! Advent is here. A lonely lighted candle on our Advent Wreath reminds us that we are beginning the season of WAITING and PREPARATION.

You may have already begun putting up the Christmas decorations in and around your home. It's an exciting time; little children counting down the days; adults searching for great deals on presents and making plans for the Holidays. But in all of this, are you remembering to prepare your hearts for the coming of the Christ Child? Every year I cannot express more emphatically that you have a manger scene in your home; it keeps us grounded and focused. Send cards with a religious theme to gently remind others of the true meaning of Christmas. To help us all get in the true spirit, we have sent every registered parishioner a booklet called "Waiting in Joyful Hope - Daily Reflections for Advent and Christmas." With so much fear, intolerance and violence in the world I challenge you, during this advent season, to focus on peace and being peacemakers. Please don't get caught up in the commercialism of Christmas or be brought low by each day's terrible news, but rather focus on the joy of God becoming human like us. Do whatever you can to Keep Christ in Christmas! Be joyful and be at peace.

ARRIVE EARLY CHRISTMAS EVE

Since the world is what it is these days, SAFETY and SECURITY are top priorities; thus we can no longer over-pack the church on Christmas Eve especially at the 4pm Mass. Please arrive early to secure a seat. Do not 'save seats' either (it can cause mini-wars). Spread the word that late comers may not be able to get into the church.

CALLING NEW AND FORMER CHOIR MEMBERS

As the holiday season approaches, Matt (our Music Director) is putting out the call for more people to join the choir. Rehearsals are on Sunday Mornings before the 9:30 Mass. As you know, Matt chooses songs that are familiar and therefore easy to belt out! Please consider joining. Matt is a talented gentleman who is super easy to work with. Cast your fears aside and help us all to Praise the Lord with gusto.
