Sharing Time, Talent and Treasure.

FROM FATHER MARK:

Tomorrow, Americans celebrate the birth of Martin Luther King, Jr., the great civil rights activist.

As many of us are feeling the dismal effects of the pandemic, unemployment, unrest in the world and the early sunsets of winter, we should reflect on the message of Dr. King. He was a believer of “non-violence brings positive change”

Let us all pray today, “Lord make me an instrument of your peace.”

CONSIDER JOINING THE CHOIR

Letter to St. Augustin's Parish,

I wanted to take this opportunity, first, to thank you for being such wonderful vocal contributors to the music that the choir and I prepare and play for you every weekend. On a personal level, it gives me great enjoyment not only to play music for you, but also, and probably more importantly, to hear the congregation singing joyfully (and sometimes even in parts!!) throughout the Mass. I am deeply appreciative to our congregation for making weekends so enjoyable and meaningful to me since I began as your organist in 2015.

As we begin what we all hope to be a more predictable and less stressful 2022, please take a moment to consider joining us in our weekly choir endeavors up in the loft! I can assure you that the lift would not be exceedingly or even remotely heavy; as we all have lives that pull us in a number of directions, I try to simplify things by sending recordings of our weekly hymns to our choir members so that folks can listen and practice on their own. We gather on Sunday mornings at 8:45 to run through the songs together in preparation for the 9:30 service—easy stuff! If you sing or even if you've fashioned yourself a singer in a different lifetime, consider yourself wanted!

I'm hopeful that this note will spark your interest in belting some great tunes on Sunday mornings upstairs with us. Even in what often seems like the wee hours of the morning, I can assure you (at least mostly!) that it's a fun time to be together with folks, and to sing out together! Please consider reaching out to me at mattgnolfo@gmail.com, or by text at 917-224-8481, and let me know if you'd be interested in joining our Sunday choir. All ages are welcome!

Hope to sing with you soon up in the choir loft!

Sincerely,

Matt Gnolfo
