7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday, Jesus continues his challenging Sermon on the Mount. "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back." Words like these are challenging! Many of us have grown up in a culture of independence and retaliation against those who harm us. Today's Gospel reminds us that the way of the world is not necessarily the way of the disciple.

In many spiritual texts, saints describe the first stage of the spiritual life as mercenary love of God. That is, we love Him because he "pays" us with graces and good things. Consider for a moment, why do you do the good that you do? Take volunteering, for example. How often do we talk about the good feelings service evokes and how you "get so much more than you give." This is still based on an attitude of return on our investment. Would we volunteer if we knew it was good to do, but we didn't "feel" good afterward? What if the people we helped seemed ungrateful, or if someone at the food pantry stole $20 out of our purse? It can be difficult to love people when we think we might not get anything back. "For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you?"

As Christians, we are called to imitate God. We follow a God who loves not only His closest friends, but who loves betrayers, deniers, and crucifiers. The Christian walk is one of perseverance and sacrifice. What does your love look like?

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO
FOMENTAR EL ENTENDIMIENTO PROFUNDO
DE LA ESCRITURA

24 de Febrero de 2019

Septimo Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

Este domingo, Jesús continúa su desafiante Sermón del Monte. "Ama a tus enemigos, haz el bien a los que te odian, bendice a los que te maldigan, reza por los que te maltratan. ¡Dale a todos los que pidan de ti y el que tome lo que es tuyo no se lo exijas!" ¡Palabras como estas son desafiantes! Muchos de nosotros hemos crecido en una cultura de independencia y represalia contra quienes nos hacen daño. El Evangelio de hoy nos recuerda que el camino del mundo no es necesariamente el camino del discípulo.

En muchos textos espirituales, los santos describen la primera etapa de la vida espiritual como el amor mercenario de Dios. Es decir, lo amamos porque él nos "paga" con gracias y cosas buenas. Considera por un momento, ¿por qué haces el bien que haces? Tomemos el voluntariado, por ejemplo. ¿Con qué frecuencia hablamos sobre los buenos sentimientos que evoca el servicio y cómo "obtiene mucho más de lo que da"? Esto todavía se basa en una actitud de retorno de nuestra inversión. ¿Seríamos voluntarios si supiéramos que era bueno hacerlo, pero no nos "sentimos" bien después? ¿Qué pasaría si las personas a las que ayudamos parecían ingratas, o si alguien en la despensa de alimentos se robó $ 20 de nuestro bolso? Puede ser difícil amar a las personas cuando pensamos que es posible que no recuperemos nada. "Porque si amas a los que te aman, ¿qué mérito es para ti?"

Como cristianos, estamos llamados a imitar a Dios. Seguimos a un Dios que ama no solo a sus amigos más cercanos, sino también a los traidores, negadores y crucificadores. El camino cristiano es uno de perseverancia y sacrificio. ¿Cómo es tu amor?

SHARING GOD'S BLESSINGS ANNUAL APPEAL 2019

Dear Parishioners,
The Annual Appeal directly supports various ministries and programs throughout the Archdiocese of Newark, such as our evangelization efforts, Catholic education, Catholic Charities, youth and young adult ministry, and many other ministries. Your participation in this campaign is vitally important. If you have not yet made a pledge to the 2019 Sharing God's Blessings Annual Appeal, there is still time. Just complete a pledge envelope and drop it in the collection basket, or bring it to the parish office. If you have already made a contribution, thank you for your generous gift. Our parish goal is $21,522.

If you have never given to the Annual Appeal, this a wonderful opportunity to take a moment to consider how you can help. Your gift, regardless of the amount, will assist many people throughout the Archdiocese. Please consider playing a role in this effort.

If you participated last year, we thank you for your gift. With it, the Church provided spiritual, educational and charitable services to those in need. I humbly ask you to continue or, if your means allow, to increase your gift to the 2019 Sharing God's Blessings Annual Appeal. I hope you will prayerfully consider making a gift.

Su contribución, independientemente de la cantidad, asistirá a muchas personas alrededor de nuestra Arquidiócesis. Por favor tome un momento para considerar de que forma Dios le esta invitando a colaborar.

Si participó el año pasado, le agradecemos su regalo. Con su regalo, nuestra Iglesia ha podido proveer servicios espirituales, educativos y caritativos a muchos con necesidad. Les pido de corazón que continúe, o si puede, aumente su aporte, al Llamado Anual de 2019. Le pido que tome un momento para considerar de que forma Dios le está invitando a colaborar.
