PEACE ON EARTH,
GOOD WILL TO ALL!

Isn't it wonderful to be back to something closer to our normal Christmas? We're not quite there yet. We should still wear our masks in crowded spaces and make sure to get fully vaccinated, but after the last few years, it has just been wonderful to be able to gather and to celebrate with family and friends.

At the same time, as the hustle and bustle return to this time of year, we also need to make sure we are creating space for God in the midst of it. After all, Jesus is the reason for the season. One of the simple questions we can ask ourselves in prayer to remain rooted is: Where do I find God in the midst of this time?

If we have taken the time to stop, breath, and reflect, I think God is allowing us to create some space within ourselves to welcome Him. Christmas comes in the midst of winter. The season itself begs a quiet all around us. It gets dark earlier, the nights are quieter, and especially when we get snow as we did last week, the whole earth rests. This can be a good thing.

I was thinking of some of my favorite Christmas poems. Of course, 'Twas the Night Before Christmas is the classic. Another favorite is Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's poem Christmas Bells. But, especially in the quiet of this time of year, the haunting beauty of Christina Rossetti's In the bleak midwinter truly speaks to me; and hopefully to you. The words have also been used in a popular hymn.

Let's reflect on the beauty of these words and ask – where am I finding God in the midst of this season?

*In the bleak midwinter,
frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron,
water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
snow on snow,
In the bleak midwinter, long ago.*

*Our God, Heaven cannot hold Him, nor earth sustain; '
Heaven and earth shall flee away
when He comes to reign.
In the bleak midwinter
a stable place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty, Jesus Christ.*

*Enough for Him, whom cherubim, /
worship night and day,
Breastful of milk, and a mangerful of hay;
Enough for Him, whom angels fall before,
The ox and ass and camel which adore.*

*Angels and archangels
may have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim thronged the air;
But His mother only, in her maiden bliss,
Worshipped the beloved with a kiss.*

*What can I give Him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
If I were a Wise Man, I would do my part;
Yet what I can I give Him: give my heart.*

On behalf of Fr. Juan, myself, and the whole collaborative staff, let me wish you all the choicest blessings of this Christmas season, and all peace, happiness, and holiness in the year ahead. Merry Christmas!!

Peace, love, and prayers,

Fr. Tom

Coming Back to Church

Question: I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer: If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back. This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be. ©LPi

The Christmas Season

We have lighted four candles these past four weeks and asked God to help us be present to our neighbors and friends. Now in the Christmas season we are called to be Christ in the flesh to our world.

Let us pray...

God, you became human through the obedience of a simple young woman named Mary. Mary is our model of faith. May we be faithful to your word as Mary was. Give us the courage to face each day with the yes that Mary gave to you. We ask this through the incarnate God, who comes to us again during this Christmas season. Amen.

Respect Life News

Like every other human family, the Holy Family had to confront real and concrete challenges. Yet, "in every situation, Joseph declared his own 'fiat'" (Patris corde, 3). His 'yes' to the Lord meant that regardless of the hardship and personal sacrifice to himself, he consistently chose to put the needs of Mary and Jesus before his own. Joseph's devotion helps reveal to us our own call to show special care for the lives of those whom God has entrusted to us.

~USCCB, 2021 Respect Life Reflection

Respect Life Prayer Intention

May the birth of Our Lord Jesus Christ and the example of the Holy Family awaken in our hearts wonder at the precious gift of every child.

RCIA 2021-2022 "What are you looking for?" (John 1:38) This is the question Jesus posed to His early disciples intrigued by His messages of love and hope. He is still asking us this question today!

We are excited to begin a new journey into faith:

for adults (18 and older) seeking to explore their spirituality more deeply, who may be interested in learning more about the many ways our Catholic faith is lived out, or for those who may want to enter more fully into the Catholic faith through the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

If you are intrigued by the on-going question Jesus asks, or know someone who might be, please feel free to contact Debbie Zane, Pastoral Associate, by phone: 508-673- 2833 or by email: dzane@3cfullriver.org.
