"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endures for ever!"

Let us make our own the Psalmist's exclamation which we sang in the Responsorial Psalm: the Lord's mercy endures forever! In order to understand thoroughly the truth of these words, let us be led by the liturgy to the heart of the event of salvation, which unites Christ's Death and Resurrection with our lives and with the world's history. This miracle of mercy has radically changed humanity's destiny. It is a miracle in which is unfolded the fullness of the love of the Father who, for our redemption, does not even draw back before the sacrifice of his Only-begotten Son.

In the humiliated and suffering Christ, believers and non-believers can admire a surprising solidarity, which binds him to our human condition beyond all imaginable measure. The Cross, even after the Resurrection of the Son of God, "speaks and never ceases to speak of God the Father, who is absolutely faithful to his eternal love for man.... Believing in this love means believing in mercy."

Let us thank the Lord for his love, which is stronger than death and sin. It is revealed and put into practice as mercy in our daily lives, and prompts every person in turn to have mercy towards the Crucified One. Is not loving God and loving one's neighbour and even one's enemies, after Jesus' example, the programme of life of every baptized person and of the whole Church?

The Gospel [this Sunday] helps us to grasp the full sense and value of this gift. The Evangelist John makes us share in the emotion felt by the Apostles in their meeting with Christ after his Resurrection. Our attention focuses on the gesture of the Master, who transmits to the fearful, astounded disciples the mission of being ministers of divine Mercy. He shows them his hands and his side, which bear the marks of the Passion, and tells them: As the Father has sent me, even so I send you. Immediately afterwards he breathed on them, and said to them, receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained. Jesus entrusted to them the gift of "forgiving sins", a gift that flows from the wounds in his hands, his feet, and especially from his pierced side. From there a wave of mercy is poured out over all humanity.

Let us relive this moment with great spiritual intensity. Today the Lord also shows us his glorious wounds and his heart, an inexhaustible source of light and truth, of love and forgiveness.

St John Paul II

"Den gracias al Señor, porque él es bueno; porque su misericordia perdura para siempre! "

Hagamos nuestra la exclamación del salmista que cantamos en el Salmo responsorial: ¡la misericordia del Señor permanece para siempre! Para comprender a fondo la verdad de estas palabras, dejémonos llevar por la liturgia al corazón del acontecimiento de la salvación, que une la Muerte y Resurrección de Cristo con nuestra vida y con la historia del mundo. Este milagro de misericordia ha cambiado radicalmente el destino de la humanidad. Es un milagro en el que se manifiesta la plenitud del amor del Padre que, para nuestra redención, ni siquiera retrocede ante el sacrificio de su Hijo Unigénito.

En Cristo humillado y sufriente, creyentes y no creyentes pueden admirar una sorprendente solidaridad, que lo une a nuestra condición humana más allá de toda medida imaginable. La Cruz, incluso después de la Resurrección del Hijo de Dios, "habla y no deja de hablar de Dios Padre, que es absolutamente fiel a su amor eterno por el hombre ... Creer en este amor es creer en la misericordia".

Demos gracias al Señor por su amor, que es más fuerte que la muerte y el pecado. Se revela y se pone en práctica como misericordia en nuestra vida diaria, e impulsa a cada uno a tener misericordia del Crucificado. ¿No es amar a Dios y amar al prójimo e incluso a los enemigos, a ejemplo de Jesús, el programa de vida de todo bautizado y de toda la Iglesia?

El Evangelio [este domingo] nos ayuda a captar el pleno sentido y valor de este don. El evangelista Juan nos hace compartir la emoción que sintieron los Apóstoles en su encuentro con Cristo después de su Resurrección. Nuestra atención se centra en el gesto del Maestro, que transmite a los discípulos temerosos y asombrados la misión de ser ministros de la Divina Misericordia. Les muestra las manos y el costado, que llevan las marcas de la Pasión, y les dice: Como el Padre me envió a mí, así también yo los envío a ustedes. Inmediatamente después, sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: Recibid el Espíritu Santo. Si perdonas los pecados de alguno, le quedan perdonados; si retienes los pecados de alguno, se retienen. Jesús les confió el don de "perdonar los pecados", don que brota de las heridas de sus manos, de sus pies y, sobre todo, de su costado traspasado. Desde allí se derrama una ola de misericordia sobre toda la humanidad.

Revivamos este momento con gran intensidad espiritual. Hoy el Señor también nos muestra sus gloriosas llagas y su corazón, fuente inagotable de luz y verdad, de amor y perdón.
