Cluster Mission Statement

We, the people of the Portland Peninsula and Island Parishes, are a diverse and multicultural community of Roman Catholics seeking to draw ourselves and others into deeper union with God through the celebration of the Sacraments, the proclamation of the Gospel, and service to our neighbor. We welcome all to share in the beauty of our Catholic faith and traditions as we strive to witness the love of Jesus Christ present among us.

5th Sunday of Easter

“Spiraling out of control,” is a phrase that can easily describe the current display of human existence. In addition to the violence, unrest, uneasiness and turmoil that are common elements of our daily news, other essential pieces are misplaced or missing. Many lack an objective center around which to order and structure their lives or a clear set of definable goals or mores to act as guideposts and life directives. It appears that “feelings” have become a “new god” and traditional structures and ideals set aside. It is almost as if history only shows that we got this whole thing wrong and many are determined to finally set things right. The real truth, however, is that while wrongs and errors are certainly a part of our often-checkered past, it is hardly the case that all was wrong. It is not our task to rewrite the history of our lives, but to learn from mistakes that were made, and preserve the perennial wisdom at the root of our successes. Learning is an essential part of being human.

The question becomes, however, from whom do we learn? Some have such a hard time placing God in that position, but that is precisely where God needs to be. God is the Master Teacher from whom all of humanity learns and gets its cues. It is in and through this relationship with the Gardener of Life that we are fashioned and pruned into the people we are intended to be and can be. It is only in God that we are able to find our best selves. Sadly, many think that religion too, as well as history in general, has also gotten all this wrong. Yet, our resurrection faith tells us differently. We are reminded, today especially, that we are meant to remain in Christ as Christ remains in us. We are also reminded that Jesus, the Incarnate God, is the vine upon which we grow, the branches that flow from the source of God’s life.

Giving up our will to God’s can be a painful endeavor. It is not easy to set our own desires and wants aside and allow God to step in and direct and guide our growth. But this is the only way to prevent deadly weeds from overtaking us and bringing us to a place of self-destruction. God’s commandments are the very guideposts and benchmarks we need, yet many seek to remove them from all public view because they appear to limit self-expression and suppress what is considered by many to be “human freedom.” They are the only way we can find freedom, however. And, until we learn this fundamental lesson, we will continue to spiral out of control, never really knowing who we are, what our potential can be or how life really can be lived. We will not know peace.

Portland Peninsula & Island Parishes Q & A: Masses for the People

Question: Why am I always seeing a Mass intention for the Parishioners of the Portland Peninsula & Island Parishes by Pastor? Is this a filler?

Answer: Great question! Each pastor in every diocese is required, canonically, to offer a Mass pro populo, or “for the people”, on Sundays and other days which are holy days of obligation. Typically this Mass intention will fall into the last-filled Sunday or holy day Mass time within our cluster, meaning that we accommodate Mass intention requests, as they come in, to the best of our ability, only reserving the last-filled option for the pro populo Mass.

If you see a pro populo Mass intention at a Mass you are attending, rejoice! That Mass is for you and your intentions. It is the least a pastor can do for those for whom he is spiritually responsible, and canon law agrees.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available on Saturdays 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Cathedral Chapel. People are invited to enter either side door of the chapel as a priest will be at either entrance. Confession is heard in the entryway while the priest is behind a curtain. All appropriate physical distance is maintained and all canonical requirements are met.

On the 19th of every month during the Year of St. Joseph (Dec 8, 2020 – Dec 8, 2021), join us after daily Mass in the Cathedral chapel for the Litany of St. Joseph. This devotion carries with it an indulgence during this special year of St. Joseph. The litany takes only several minutes. St. Joseph, pray for us!

"Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts?" (Lk 24:38)

With so many responsibilities – caring for your family, work, tending to the house, etc. – there are many things to worry and stress about. Entrust them to God and find peace; He will deliver you.

The Year of St. Joseph Corner

"God, because of the great love He bears us, and His great desire to see us saved, has given us among other means of salvation the practice of devotion to the saints. It is His will that they, who are His friends, should intercede for us, and by their merits and prayers obtain graces for us which we ourselves do not deserve. But everyone must know that, after the Mother of God, St. Joseph is, of all the saints, the one dearest to God. He has, therefore, great power with Him and can obtain graces for His devout clients..."

- St. Alphonsus Liguori

FAITH FORMATION

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about the vine and the branches to teach us about staying close to him. Jesus is the vine and we are the branches. Who is the vine grower? Jesus calls us to stay as close to him as branches are to a vine and to love and serve one another. We can stay close to Jesus by praying. We can pray for Jesus' help or thank him for something we are grateful for.

2021-2022 Lay Continuing Education & Formation Endowment Fund Grants for Adult Faith Formation

Bishop Robert Deeley, in conjunction with the Lay Continuing Education & Formation Endowment Fund Grant Review Committee, is pleased to invite diocesan employees and volunteers in parishes, schools, and diocesan offices to apply for grants available for 2021-22. In general, the purpose of the grants is to support ongoing adult faith formation and professional development related to employment and ministry in the Church. The Lay Continuing Education & Formation Endowment Fund is an endowment that was established as part of the "Strengthening the Heartbeat of the Church" capital campaign. The principle is held in trust and invested by the Catholic Foundation of Maine. The diocese is grateful to the faithful of Maine for their pledges to the capital campaign and to those who have made additional contributions to the principle in recent years. As a result, the funds will allow more of our faithful to access resources and increase their knowledge so that they may live out their faith and share it with others. You will find information explaining the grants, requirements, committee, and process at www.portlanddiocese.org/olff/leadership/lay-continuing-ed-grants. Please complete and submit applications by Monday, July 19, at 12 p.m.

Is gossip a mortal sin?

To really ask this question, we must consider the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness." In its reflections on this commandment, The Catechism of the Catholic Church invites us to not only think about what bearing "false witness" means, but to also consider how we understand the truth and how we communicate more broadly. This is why so much of this section of the Catechism has to do with the gift of language. With this in mind, we will notice that the word "gossip" isn't used by the Catechism. Instead, we find the words "detraction" and "calumny," which are actually two forms that gossip can take, and both can be quite serious.

First, detraction is the of revealing "another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them," without morally valid reasons. Calumny, by extension, is saying something about another person that is untrue, and it is sinful because it "harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgements" (see no. 2477). In all of our communication, we have to always recognize that we have a moral obligation to the truth and to always work to protect the reputation and honor of our neighbors (see no. 2479).

Gossip can, in fact, prove to be a very serious sin. After all, the Catechism reminds us: "No one is bound to reveal the truth to someone who does not have the right to know it" (no. 2489). When we have gossiped, especially if we are aware we have damaged another person's good name or reputation, we want to make every effort to undo the damage we have done, including seeking the grace and forgiveness offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Are you Considering Senior Living?
“ I had some concerns, as I suspect most people entering senior living may have, regarding our social lives and whether we would develop friends here. Not only have my wife and I been able to maintain existing relationships but we have met several new people here... people we now consider to be our friends. The life enrichment program is designed to nurture interaction between people. The hostess in the Main Dining Room seats new guests with compatible table mates and within days, individuals become neighbors and friends. The floor we live on has become our new neighborhood. The people living here seem to understand that all of us have been new to The Park Danforth at some point. Everyone is so friendly here. My wife and I could not feel more at home.”
