

CHURCH OF OUR LADY OF THE ASSUMPTION
WOODBIDGE/BETHANY
Seventh Sunday of Easter
May 16, 2021

MAY CROWNING
SUNDAY, MAY 9, 2021

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

READINGS FOR SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FIRST READING: A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26

Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers —there was a group of about one hundred and twenty persons in the one place —. He said, “My brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand through the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who was the guide for those who arrested Jesus. He was numbered among us and was allotted a share in this ministry. “For it is written in the Book of Psalms: May another take his office. “Therefore, it is necessary that one of the men who accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus came and went among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us, become with us a witness to his resurrection.” So they proposed two, Judas called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed, “You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this apostolic ministry from which Judas turned away to go to his own place.” Then they gave lots to them, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven apostles. L. The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God

SECOND READING: A Reading from the First Letter of St. John 4:11-16

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another. No one has ever seen God. Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is brought to perfection in us. This is how we know that we remain in him and he in us, that he has given us of his Spirit. Moreover, we have seen and testify that the Father sent his Son as savior of the world. Whoever acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God. We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us. God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him.

L. The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Gospel: A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 17:11b-19

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: “Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one. When I was with them I protected them in your name that you gave me, and I guarded them, and none of them was lost except the son of destruction, in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you. I speak this in the world so that they may share my joy completely. I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth.”

P. The Gospel of the Lord R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Gospel Reflection:

Life can easily erode our faith. Think of your life over the last couple of weeks. What challenged your faith and distracted your divine glance? Even being overly stimulated with technology and social media can erode our sense of confidence and cause us to forget who we really are. We need to distance ourselves from the world in order to experience the joy that Christ offers. The world will never like the word of God. It is too challenging and too perplexing. The world mistakenly believes that it can survive on its own. It is a mistaken judgment that may cost people a lot in the end. It is all so very simple: God remains when we love one another. If in all the business of our lives and all that each day brings, the good and the bad, we follow the call and path of love, we will walk with God. There is nothing to fear and anxiety finds no home.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me.

Within Thy wounds hide me.

Separated from Thee let me never be.

From the malignant enemy, defend me.

At the hour of death, call me.

And close to Thee bid me.

That with Thy saints I may be praising Thee, forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER TO ST MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray;

and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host,

by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

CATHOLIC COMMUNICATIONS CAMPAIGN COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

Today we take up the collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). Your support helps the CCC connect people to Christ and builds Catholic communities in the United States and around the world using the internet, television, radio, and print media. Half the funds we collect remain here in the Archdiocese of Hartford to support local efforts.

Be a part of this campaign to spread the Gospel message. Support the collection today! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/cc.

ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

The Archbishop's Annual Appeal changes lives through service. In addition to assisting the underserved of our communities, your gift helps those discerning a vocation to the priesthood. Your gift to the Appeal is an investment in the future of our Church and our faith.

Thank you to the parish families who have made a gift or pledge to the 2021 Archbishop's Annual Appeal. To date, 207 families have pledged $84,721.00 which represents 67% of the parish goal of $125,00.00. If you have not yet participated, please prayerfully consider a gift today.

Please know that every dollar of your gift will have a positive impact in someone's life.

CHRIST IS ALIVE . . . AND TRULY PRESENT IN THE EUCHARIST

In preparation for Pentecost Sunday (5/23) at which time all the faithful are invited back to Church, and for the Feast of Corpus Christi (the Body of Christ on 6/6), there will be a three-week dvd series by Bishop Barron on Eucharist. This is an opportunity to delve into the central mystery of our faith by taking a deeper look at this most Holy Sacrament and having a deeper understanding of the precious gift of Christ's Divine Life that we can receive at each and every Mass.

The Introductory session (3') is on our parish website. The following three sessions will be held in the Religious Education Conference Room on Wednesday, beginning May 19, following May 26 and June 2 from 7:00 – 8:15 pm. To register, please contact Sr. Carolyn at carsev2000@yahoo.com or call the office.

New Directives for Liturgies in Churches of the Archdiocese of Hartford

MAY 10, 2021

In light of recent developments from the civil authorities regarding COVID-19 measures, Archbishop Blair is pleased to announce two things: As of May 19, 2021, the COVID-19 restrictions and procedures first implemented on May 27, 2020, in the document Opening Churches For Public Worship In The Archdiocese Of Hartford are hereby revoked. As of Saturday, May 22, 2021, the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass in person on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation will no longer be in force.

Therefore, as of the weekend of Pentecost Sunday (May 22/23), there is an obligation once again to participate at Mass. However, since the risk of infection, though diminished, still remains, the following individuals may very legitimately decide not yet to attend church: those suffering from serious pre-existing conditions making them more susceptible to COVID-19; those who are ill or homebound or who are caregivers in close contact with someone who is; those who have tested positive for any contagious disease, including COVID-19; and those who are in quarantine due to exposure to any contagion, or who reside with someone who is quarantined. It is recommended that churches that have introduced livestreaming during the pandemic continue to offer this as an option for the benefit of the homebound and those still unable or afraid to return to Mass at this time.

The Sacrament of Penance can return to normal with the understanding that both the priest and penitent must continue to wear a mask. Church halls and spaces can all be used, in keeping with any and all guidelines provided by the State of Connecticut:

General Guidelines: Given Governor Lamont's declaration that "remaining restrictions will be lifted, except masks" on May 19, 2021, our churches can reopen to 100% capacity with no need for any specific social distancing (<https://portal.ct.gov/DECD/Content/Coronavirus-Business-Recovery/Sector-Rulesfor-Reopen>).

- Masks, however, are still required for all who enter the church. Also, the rules regarding wearing masks for those in the sanctuary will remain in place.
- Exposed holy water fonts should remain empty. Covered fonts with spigots or automatic holy water dispensers can be provided for parishioners to obtain holy water
- Pew barriers and tape, signs, etc. that were previously used to direct the flow of traffic in aisles can be removed.
- People can be allowed into spaces such as the sacristy, vestibule, and meeting areas of the church, but all should take care to consider the space and well-being of others in their vicinity.
- The restriction against gatherings before and after Mass is rescinded.

Liturgical Guidelines:

- Adult liturgical ministers are now allowed to serve as Ushers, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, etc.
- The earlier guidance regarding altar servers remains in force for now, with only one adult server allowed.
- Congregational singing is once again allowed, but masks need to remain on during singing and throughout the liturgy
- Choirs and musicians can be reintroduced as deemed appropriate by the pastor.
- Entrance and exit processions are now allowed. Even those who do not need masks in the sanctuary are to wear them in procession
- The Offertory collection can be restored using baskets with extended handles, but individual baskets or plates are not to be passed from person to person. Collection boxes at the entrances of the church are also a suitable alternative.
- There is still to be no Offertory procession bringing forward the gifts.
- The Sign of Peace can be announced and reinstated but is only to be exchanged without touching

- The COVID-19 procedures for distributing Holy Communion will remain in place for now:
- Ministers of Holy Communion sanitize their hands prior to distributing.
- Both the ministers of Holy Communion and those receiving are to wear masks.
- Communicants will receive the consecrated host in their hand, step to the side, lower their mask, consume the host, replace their mask, and return to their pew.

Cleaning & Disinfecting Guidelines:

- Given the CDC's update on April 5, 2021, regarding the cleaning and disinfecting of homes and buildings, the disinfecting/sanitizing practices for churches can be replaced with general cleaning.
- Because the risk of infection from touching a surface is low, the CDC now recommends for buildings in community settings that cleaning once a day with products containing soap or detergent is usually enough to sufficiently remove virus that may be on surfaces. A space need only be cleaned and disinfected if there has been a sick person or someone who tested positive for COVID-19 in the facility within the last 24 hours.

Knights of Columbus Paper Shredding Event

On Saturday, June 19th, 2021, the Trinity Council of The Knights of Columbus will be hosting its first annual paper shredding event from 9:00 a.m. to noon at Our Lady of the Assumption Church (Center Road) parking lot in Woodbridge, CT.

This is the first time the Knights will be offering this free of charge service. All we ask for in return is that participants show their appreciation by making a financial donation to Trinity Council.

There will be knights and volunteers on hand to collect donations and help unload cars.
