A READING FROM THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

THE WORD OF THE LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF ST. PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues.

But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

THE WORD OF THE LORD.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now."

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him. THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD.

Dear parishioners,

My favorite passage from the Sacred Scriptures is from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans 12:12 – “Rejoice in hope, be patient under trial, and persevere in prayer.” I remember encountering these words at the very start of my time as a seminarian, as I was learning how to pray the Liturgy of the Hours. These words have been a steady source of inspiration for me throughout the many and varied experiences of my years of priestly formation and ministry. I turn to them now in my own meditation, especially during times of challenge, and I invite you to do the same.

Even when we have setbacks, we are lifted up by God's grace. His love for us endures all things, and brings us to new life. It is the ongoing and everyday relationship that we have with Our Lord Jesus, made manifest by the Gospel and through the sacraments, and sustained by honest prayer. The struggles certainly come, big ones and small ones, as they are part of our humanity. We know that well. What we also know -- as we have celebrated at Christmas -- Our Lord Jesus takes on our humanity so that we too can be holy.

Last weekend, I began my pastoral ministry on the Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord Jesus. I realized that this great moment of salvation history marked the beginning of the public ministry of Our Savior. That type of connection certainly helps me to stay in a feeling of joy and hopefulness. Thank you to everyone for their kind welcome and encouragement. We are never alone on the journey of faith.

All the way -- to God's embrace.
Sincerely, Father Lavorgna

FRIDAY MORNING BOOK CLUB... beginning Friday, January 21 and for the following five weeks, we will gather in the Rectory Meeting Room from 10:00 – 11:15 A.M. to share and discuss Fr. Michael Buckley, S.J.'s book, What Do You Seek. In his book, Buckley meditates on fourteen key personal questions that Jesus asks in the Gospel of John—such questions as, “What do you seek?”, “Do you know what I have done to you?”, “Do you take offense at this?”, “Do you love Me?”.

These questions challenge and unsettle; they cut to the heart of human experience. Like a plow plunging into hard soil, they split life open!

REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS TUESDAY, JANUARY 18TH; the book is $18 and are available at the Rectory Office. Be the catalyst in starting this New Year of Grace—2022-- off to a good start! For more information, contact Sr. Carolyn at:
