SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

- Lk 4:28, 30

“The Lord sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives.”

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH (1:4-5, 17-19)

The word of the LORD came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. But do you gird your loins; stand up and tell them all that I command you. Be not crushed on their account, as though I would leave you crushed before them; for it is I this day who have made you a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of brass, against the whole land: against Judah's kings and princes, against its priests and people. They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD. THE WORD OF THE LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

I will sing, I will sing _____ of your sal - va - tion. _____

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS (13:4-13)

Brothers and sisters: Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love. THE WORD OF THE LORD.

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE (4:21-30)

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

FROM THE OFFICE OF FAITH FORMATION

Dear Our Lady of the Assumption Parish Community,

It is with a heavy heart that I bid you all farewell. As of January 31st, I will be stepping down from my position here as Director of Faith Formation and Youth Ministry. I have decided to do so for personal reasons after much consideration.

I am very grateful to Fr. Ford and Fr. Lavorgna for their ongoing support. In the interim, Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Hamilton will be helping to keep the Faith Formation program running.

It has been a great joy and pleasure serving the parish and getting to know you! I will miss everyone and will continue to pray for you all. May the Light of our Lord always shine on you and through you.

Peace in Christ Jesus,
Mary Ryan

FEAST OF ST BLAISE FEBRUARY 3, 2022

St. Blaise's protection of those with throat troubles comes from a legend that a boy was brought to him who had a fish bone stuck in his throat. The boy was about to die when St. Blaise healed him.

A general blessing of the throats will be given at all the Masses this weekend.

Please Pray for the Sick

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL COLLECTION

WE ARE GRATEFUL! Catholic high school students in the Archdiocese of Hartford send their deepest gratitude and thanks to all who participated in the 2022 Catholic High School Collection.

Your support will further enhance the outstanding educational experience our secondary schools offer and help students prepare for leadership roles and active lives of faith as they move forward.

Thank you for your generosity.

WHY WE CELEBRATE THE FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

On February 2, we observe the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, honoring Jesus Christ's presentation in the Temple when he was a young child. Jesus' presentation in the Temple reflects how he fulfills the Old Covenant. According to Old Testament law, a sacrifice had to be offered in the Temple when a child was consecrated to the Lord. Mary and Joseph honor this tradition, as Luke 2:22-24 describes: When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord," and to offer the sacrifice of "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons," in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord.

Simeon, a devout and upright man, had been told by the Lord he would meet the Messiah before his death. When Jesus comes to the Temple, we see the fulfillment of this prophecy. Simeon and the prophetess Anna, acting – in the words of Pope John Paul II – as “representatives of the Old Covenant” – recognize Jesus' Lordship as Messiah in this culmination of their watchful waiting. When Simeon receives Jesus, he blesses him, and prophesies Jesus' future as Savior, proclaiming him the Light of the world: He took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." – Luke 2:28-32

On this day, we also reflect on the gift of consecrated life. While the momentary satisfaction of selfish living ultimately leads to emptiness, living a life of holiness, dedicated to God's service, will give true contentment and peace. As Pope Francis has expressed: "Consecrated life is born and reborn of an encounter with Jesus as he is: poor, chaste and obedient... And while worldly life soon leaves our hands and hearts empty, life in Jesus fills us with peace to the very end, as in the Gospel, where Simeon and Anna come happily to the sunset of their lives with the Lord in their arms and joy in their hearts."

PRAYER FOR CONSECRATED PERSONS

"God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as sisters, brothers, religious priests, consecrated virgins, and hermits, as well as members of Secular Institutes. Renew their knowledge and love of you, and send your Holy Spirit to help them respond generously and courageously to your will.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen."

Human Trafficking: From Awareness to Action

February 8 is the International Day of Prayer and Awareness Against Human Trafficking. It is also the Feast Day of St. Josephine Bakhita, who was kidnapped as a child and sold into slavery in Sudan and Italy. St. Bakhita is the patron saint of human trafficking survivors.

Social Justice at St. Mary's - the McGivney Way (New Haven) will be hosting a Webinar presented by a member of the Archdiocese of Hartford's Human Trafficking Task Force on this serious and important topic. All are welcome. The presentation is designed to raise awareness about this issue and discuss opportunities for action. It is appropriate for students in high school as well as adults.

Please join us to learn more about the impact of Human Trafficking across our country and throughout Connecticut ONLINE PRESENTATION Tuesday, February 8, 2022 from 7:00 – 7:45pm followed by Q&A.

Please call or email the Office for Catholic Social Justice at 860-242-5573 or info.ocsjm@aohct.org to register. Registration is required.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Many adults entering the Catholic Church, or those just thinking about it, follow a process known as the RCIA – the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The process begins this weekend at Our Lady of the Assumption. If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, please consider joining the group. The sessions are held via ZOOM.

Please call Sr. Carolyn at the Parish Office (203-387-7119) to register or for more information.

2021 Our Lady of the Assumption Financial Contribution Statement

If you would like a statement of your financial support to the parish for the past year, please contact Anita at the parish office (203-387-7119) or email parishsecretaryloa@gmail.com or complete this form and mail it to the parish office at 81 Center Road, Woodbridge, CT 06525.

THE OFFICE OF SEMINARIANS AND VOCATIONS ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

A Message from Father Michael Casey, Vocation Director

“It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain.” (John 15:16). The call of the Lord Jesus to serve him in the Holy Priesthood arises directly from the love of his Sacred Heart. He is still calling many more men today to leave their worldly desires and ambitions behind and set out on the great adventure of the Catholic Priesthood, to dedicate their lives to the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

A call to the priesthood usually begins with some attraction to priestly life and ministry, a call to give oneself to God in a deeper, more radical way. From there through prayer and participation in the Church’s sacramental life, one usually is led to greater trust in beginning to take the first steps of answering God’s call. If you think God may be calling you, do not be afraid! Spend time in prayer, particularly in Eucharistic Adoration and participation in the Sacraments in order to come to know Christ better. Also, it would be helpful to reach out and speak to a priest who you may know and trust, just to see what his thoughts are.

The Lord God promised to send shepherds for his Church. Today the people of God need good and holy priests who will proclaim the Gospel and celebrate the Sacraments for our world. If God is calling you, be courageous in answering, knowing that with St. Paul “we can do all things in him who strengthens us” (cf Phil 4:14).

The Office of Seminarians and Vocations for the Archdiocese of Hartford is committed to fostering quality, faithful, and lasting vocations to the priesthood. To this end, the men in our formation program must be committed disciples of Jesus Christ willing to form their lives in His likeness. St. John Vianney says, “The priest is first of all a man of prayer.” Our vocation program places priority on daily prayer. As our world becomes more materialistic and secular, the people of God need priests who, by word and example, promote the universal call to holiness which is born out of a devoted prayer life, centered in Sacred Scripture and Eucharistic oblation. Authentic devotion to the Blessed Mother is essential as well, because it leads men in the path of her divine Son.

God is calling men to the priesthood. Are you one of them?
The noise and distractions of our culture can cause a spiritual deafness.
The Office of Seminarians and Vocations would like to help you hear
God’s voice and discern His will for your life.
If you think God is calling you the time to act is now!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

“Love is patient, love is kind ...” As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you’ve probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn’t just for newlyweds. It wasn’t written for married folks. It’s for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It’s for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I’m forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn’t there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it’s never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that’s an opportunity to “strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.”

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.
