PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

As members of the Church of Saint Adalbert, we strive to be a loving, vibrant Roman Catholic community, dedicated to being Church for one another and supportive, helpful, and caring to all. As we nurture our Polish Catholic heritage, we endeavor to be a community that welcomes everyone. (Parish Mission Statement, Adopted June 17, 1998)

St. Adalbert, pray for us! Święty Wojciecha, módl się za nami!

Sant'Adalberto, prega per noi! San Adalberto, ruega por nosotros!

The Real Presence

Question:

How do you explain the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist ?

Answer:

The first Communion class is filled with excitement to the point of bursting! They are just awestruck by every new thing they learn about Jesus. Their enthusiasm is contagious as they rattle off the names of the things in church, the vessels and vestments used at Mass, and the names of their pastors and priests. Of course, they know Christ can do anything because he's God. He comes to us in holy Communion because he loves us so much that he wants to be with us. And he comes to us in the form of bread and wine. We really receive him in the Eucharist.

Sometimes it is easier to explain this to children than to adults. Their faith and trust in Jesus is not limited by the questions and doubts that often come with the question of how he does it. Rather, they focus on the question "why," and the answer is something they can easily grasp: love. Christ wants to be with us because he loves us. Nothing is purer in truth or in faith. Not even the theological explanation of transubstantiation, or philosophical reasoning or symbolic references, come close. Christ takes on the form of bread and wine to be simple and approachable, so that no one is afraid or turned away. His love for us is complete and total. We try to love him the same way in return. For a child, it is simple. For us adults, we keep trying. "Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven" (Mt 18:3). ©LPi

The Church of St. Adalbert will be open for personal prayer:

Monday through Friday:

9:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M. - Church of St. Adalbert

Please keep a safe distance between the person next to you; otherwise, wear a mask or covering if you need to come within six feet of someone.

WATCH US ON TELEVISION AND ONLINE

During the shutdown, follow our Masses on our website, our Facebook page:

@ STADALBERTSCHENECTADY

and on public access television on Sundays at 9:00 A.M., with a replay on Thursday at 6:00 A.M. Schenectady subscribers of Spectrum Cable can tune in on channel 1301; Verizon Fios customers can watch us on channel 36.

RE-INTRODUCTION OF MASSES WITH THE FAITHFUL

Great news: I am pleased to announce that, with the permission of our Bishop and diocesan officials, we are beginning this weekend, June 13-14, to celebrate Masses inside our churches, with a congregation. All parishes have agreed that their churches are to be places promoting a healthy and safe environment; thus, we must all follow strict guidelines designed to keep us free from the COVID virus.

Here are some bullet points that highlight our re-entry, which ushers will assist us with:

- As of this writing, 25 percent of the maximum capacity of the church can be inside
- If more than this number appear for Mass, we will serve communion to those waiting outside in the parking lots right after Mass (like we have done for the past two weekends)
- Except for persons who reside together, we maintain a minimum six-foot distance from others at all times
- Mandatory masks except for the point of reception of holy communion
- Certain doors or restrooms are closed for entry
- Hand sanitizing for all who enter the church
- Required written contact tracing forms to be completed in church for all who participate in Mass
- For now, we cannot have holy water, missalette, choirs, ministers other than the priest in the sanctuary, processions of the gifts, chalices offering the Precious Blood to the faithful, physical signs of peace, hand-shaking, greetings by the priest at the door following Mass, and any congregation of persons after Mass (we pray that hopefully one day, these practices can be restored).

Again, our Bishop has dispensed us from the obligation to participate in Mass on Sundays or holy days of obligation. If you are in a high-risk category due to age or underlying health conditions, or if you are feeling sick, you do not have to attend the Mass and you ought not to if your health would jeopardize others.

Don't worry: we'll still continue our streaming Mass on the websites and our Sunday television Mass at 9:00 AM on Spectrum cable and Verizon Fios for Schenectady subscribers.

Let us thank God in prayer that we can now participate in Mass again in our churches, as we offer our prayers for those who still labor under the effects of this virus. God's peace be with you.

Anima Christi - Soul of Christ
 Soul of Christ, sanctify me
 Body of Christ, save me
 Blood of Christ, inebriate me
 Water from the side of Christ, wash me
 Passion of Christ, strengthen me
 O good Jesus, hear me
 Within Thy wounds hide me
 Suffer me not to be separated from Thee
 From the malignant enemy defend me
 In the hour of my death call me
 And bid me come unto Thee
 That with Thy Saints I may praise Thee
 Forever and ever. Amen.

Greetings, living Host, in whom Jesus Christ conceals the Deity!
 Hello, Jesus, Son of Mary, You are the true God in the Holy Host.

Greetings, tree of life, Let innocence, angelic virtue flourish.
 Hello Jesus ...

Greetings, Lamb of God, Save us when the Lord's sword is angry!
 Hello Jesus ...

Greetings, Bread of Angels in this Sacrament we worship You.
 Hello Jesus ...

Greetings, Holy Fount! Sacred Heart, Holy Grace!
 Hello Jesus ...

Hail, Divine Priest, Receive our sacrifices, hear our plea.
 Hello Jesus ...

Greetings, Good Shepherd! You gave your soul for us on the cross!
 Hello Jesus ...

Hail, Almighty God! I already love you sincerely, how my heart can!
 Hello Jesus ..."

"The Lord is merciful and compassionate, slow to get angry and filled with unending love. The Lord is good to everyone, he showers compassion on all his creation."

Psalm 145:8-9 (c. 1000 B.C.)

"Shout for joy, you heavens; rejoice, you earth; burst into song, you mountains! For the Lord comforts his people and will have compassion on his afflicted ones."

Isaiah 49:13 (c. 700 B.C.)

"Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, 'Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.' By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive."

Gospel of St. John 7:37-39a (First century A.D.)

"God did not tell us to follow Him because He needed our help, but because He knew that loving Him would make us whole."

St. Irenaeus of Lyon (130-202 A.D.)

"If man were to love, he would see God who is charity."

St. Augustine of Hippo (354-450 A.D.)

"O Sacred Heart of Jesus, living and life-giving fountain of eternal life, infinite treasury of the Divinity, and glowing furnace of love, Thou art my refuge and my sanctuary. O adorable and glorious Saviour, consume my heart with that burning fire that ever inflames Thy Heart. Pour down on my soul those graces that flow from Thy love. Let my heart be so united with Thine, that our wills may be one, and mine may in all things be conformed to Thine. May Thy will be the rule of both my desires and my actions."

St. Gertrude the Great (1256-1302 A.D.)

"They shall find in this devotion all the aids necessary in their state of life: peace in their homes, consolation in their work, the blessing of heaven upon all their enterprises, comfort in their sorrows, a secure refuge during life and especially at the hours of death. It is plainly evident that there is no one in the world who will not receive all kinds of heavenly blessings if they have a true love of Jesus Christ manifested by a devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus."

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-1690 A.D.)

O Heart of Jesus, treasure of tenderness, You Yourself are my happiness, my only hope. You who knew how to charm my tender youth, Stay near me till the last night. Lord, to you alone I've given my life, and all my desires are well known to you. It's in your ever-infinite goodness That I want to lose myself, O Heart of Jesus!

St. Thérèse of Lisieux (1873-1897 A.D.)

O sweet Jesus, it is here You established the throne of Your mercy to bring joy and hope to sinful man. From Your open Heart, as from a pure fount, Flows comfort to a repentant heart and soul.

St. Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938 A.D.)

"In the Sacred Heart, every treasure of wisdom and knowledge is hidden. In that divine heart beats God's infinite love for everyone and for each of us as individuals."
