Dear Parishioners,

We are working on our Religious Education Program during the current health crisis. In order to avoid cross contamination of the school building, classes will have to be virtual for the time being. Parents also have the option of home schooling their children this year. We will provide the student book and parents will be asked to work through it with their children. Mrs. Perry is currently in need of volunteers willing to teach 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades. Mrs. Perry can work with volunteers so they are able to use zoom for online classes. Please contact Mrs. Perry at religiouseducation.stjoseph854@gmail.com if you are able to help.

I spoke with Bill Patenaude recently and he will be conducting the RCIA classes for adults who are interested in becoming Catholic or completing their Sacraments of Initiation. The classes will be conducted online during this year. Bill is an engineer for the DEM who also has a Masters Degree in Theology from Providence College. Bill runs a website (catholicceology.net) and recently had his first novel published, A Printer's Choice. Bill has been running our RCIA program for the past few years. He is a dynamic, engaging teacher who journeys passionately with his students. If you have not completed your sacraments or know someone who would like to become Catholic, please call or email the rectory. The program begins in October and ends at the Easter Vigil.

Finally, a quick word of hope... for Patriots fans. If you watched the game last week, even though they lost, the offense really seems to be coming together. The Pats have a tough schedule after this weekend's game, but I'm getting excited for what this season could hold. I wish Tom Brady well, but count me on the Cam Newton bandwagon!

Have a great week and stay safe!

God Bless,
Father Stowe
