Dear Parishioners,

It’s hard to believe that it’s already Thanksgiving week. Even with all the chaos of this past year, it’s important not to forget all the many good things in our lives. Amidst the daily grind of life, it’s easy to lose the forest for the trees. Thanksgiving reminds us to take a moment to stop, reflect upon all the graces and blessings bestowed upon us, and offer to God a simple and sincere “thank you.” There’s no better way to start your Thanksgiving celebration than by coming to Mass and receiving the Eucharist. In many ways, Thanksgiving without Mass is just a turkey dinner. So please, make every effort to begin your holiday with the sacrifice of the Holy Mass, which begins at 9AM on Thursday morning. While you join us in prayer, the turkey will take care of itself.

Donations to the Annual Collection continue to arrive in the mail and in the donation boxes in the church. We are off to a good start but are trailing behind last year. Your support of this year’s Annual Collection will help us toward the costs of repairing and repainting the outside of the church. I’m hopeful to line up bids this winter to have the project work accomplished in the springtime.

We received guidance from the diocese with regard to Christmas Masses. With the increasing number of cases of COVID-19 in the state, things are always subject to change. We will be putting up a sign-up genius for our Christmas Masses in the coming weeks. We are looking at having 2 Christmas Eve Masses beginning at 3PM and 4:30PM. I hope to finalize plans in the next few weeks. Keep an eye on the bulletin for more information.

Have a safe and Happy Thanksgiving!

God Bless,

Father Stowe
