Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, the Church celebrates the Baptism of the Lord, marking the beginning of the public ministry of Jesus. This week begins the observation of Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. With our celebration of Christmas complete, the poinsettias from our beautiful decorations are looking very healthy. These plants will be available in front of the statue of Saint Joseph for any parishioners to take home. I’m sure you can keep them alive much longer than I could!

With the holidays behind us, we look forward to all that 2021 has ahead. The school reopened this past week and it's good to have the students back. The two week break was much needed by the students, faculty and staff. After a little R & R, everyone is excited to be continuing our school year with all the classes “in-person.”

Religious education classes will begin this weekend virtually. Mrs. Knott sent an email to parents for grades 1-8 last week. The teachers have set up their own times to hold “Distance CCD”. Confirmation students will be receiving an email this week with more information for our Confirmation Program. If you have a child that has not signed up for Religious Education, please call or email the rectory.

Finally, Bill Patenaude is working individually and virtually with any adults who need to complete their sacraments for our RCIA program this year. If you were never confirmed and would like to be, please call or email the rectory so we can get your information to him.

Have a great week!

God Bless,

Father Stowe
