Dear Parishioners,

Our Annual Giving Tree took on a different look this year yet had a larger impact than ever before. We raised over $9,000 and assisted more than 30 families with gift cards! We were also able to support our Saint Vincent de Paul Society with financial assistance for even more families with some of the donations to our Mother Teresa Fund. Thank you for your selfless gifts—you make the charity of Christ visible for those in need.

A word of thanks for all the Christmas cookies and treats dropped by the rectory and school. Unless Santa brings me some larger pants, I may have to start Lenten fasting a few months early.

Our Christmas Mass schedule will begin on Friday, December 24th with a 4PM Vigil Mass. Our Mass at Night (The Old Midnight Mass) will begin at 10PM. Our Christmas morning Masses will begin at 8:30AM and 11AM. Please note that the 4PM Vigil Mass is usually our largest crowd. We will have extra chairs in the front church entrance and near the candle room for overflow seating.

With December 25th on Saturday, I'd like to wish you and your families a blessed, joyful, and peaceful Christmas day. I pray that your celebration of the Lord's birth be one of joy, hope, and peace. May this holy season be filled with an outpouring of graces for you and your families.

Have a blessed week and a Merry Christmas!

God Bless,

Father Stowe
