

Holy Angels and St. Mary's Parishes

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove.

- Lk 3:21-22a

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Bulletin Message 1/8-1/9

*“And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.’”
(Luke 3: 22b)*

I remember many years ago when I was much younger skating on three small ponds. One fed into the other with the final pond emptying into a culvert under the nearby highway. I recall this one time when my father was present looking on. I was so eager to show my skill at skating and did some kind of move to catch his attention. I wanted his approval even for this small effort of etching a few marks on the ice. He did shake his head acknowledging me. My skating skill was not Olympic material, neither was it anything out of the ordinary but it made a difference that Pop was at least interested enough to spend the time with us. We all crave affirmation and approval - unconditional approval - that is. We need to be respected and honored because we are the beloved of someone else. This is not a reference to romance but how God our Father sees our relationship with Him. In the Gospel this Sunday God the Father speaks out to His Son so that all can hear: an announcement of love and respect. Yet it's not based on anything Christ had accomplished in ministry up to that point. In fact His ministry had not yet begun. This was a gesture of pure, unconditional love expressed toward Jesus in a loving relationship with Him. No matter how we mess up, no matter how many times we turn from Him and go our own way, no matter how much trouble we get into He continues to love us and reach out to us. This is the second of three manifestations or “epiphanies” Christ will express. The first one at the manger in Bethlehem in which God the Father presents Jesus as the light and savior of the world, the third one is at Cana when He changes water into wine; the initiation of His ministry of healing and teaching. This illustrates God's love for us as He begins the redemption of humanity. There are times when children drive their parents crazy by their antics yet remain committed to their happiness and well-being because of their undying love for them. So God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit have an undying love for their children. At the Baptism of Christ our Lord set in motion the means by which we can be adopted as children into the family of God (the Holy Trinity) for all eternity. Through Christ's suffering and death we have been purchased and paid for. We can now inherit the Kingdom with all its glories, just as a human child who is adopted by a man and woman, will qualify for the inheritance of its newfound parents. Our baptism is the legal seal that gives us the right to such an awesome future if we maintain our bond with Christ through a life adhering to the laws of God and the Church, overcoming sin and relying on Him for all things.
