Contribution Envelopes For 2021

Contribution envelopes are here and available for you to pick up.

If you are from the Bristol area, they are at Our Lady of Grace, and if you are from the Plymouth area, they are at St. Matthew. If you are unable to pick them up, please call Chris in Bristol at 744-2700 or Sandy in Plymouth at 536-4700. If you are no longer interested in contribution envelopes because you are giving online, please let us know that as well. Thank you for your assistance.

Would you Consider Online Giving?

The effects of COVID 19 have been wide spread, whether it be physically, emotionally, and financially just to name a few. The parish has also felt the effects financially. If you haven't already transitioned to online giving, would you please consider doing so? That way, we can continue to receive your weekly offerings even when you are not here, as the payments are automatic. We thank you for your continued generosity, prayers and participation at Holy Trinity Parish.

CAMPUS MINISTRY NEWS

THANK YOU to Fr. Leo for joining us via Zoom each month for a prayer service and especially this month, as we remembered our beloved dead with cell phone flashlights in place of candles, which we can't have in dorms.

GOOD LUCK on final papers, performances, projects, and exams! We'll be keeping you in our prayers. And have a Happy Thanksgiving and a safe and relaxing break with your families! Very best wishes if you are graduating, finishing up your final semester on campus before student teaching or interning next semester, or otherwise leaving PSU. For those returning, we'll see you at the end of January!

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

As for you, my sheep, thus says the Lord God, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

PSALM:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

SECOND READING:

For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

The last enemy to be destroyed is death. (1 Cor 15:25-26)

GOSPEL:

"He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Then the king will say to those on his right,

'Come, you who are blessed by my Father.

Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'" (Mt 25:33-34)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF NOVEMBER 22, 2020

Monday:	St. Clement I, Pope and Martyr; St. Columban, Abbot; Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro, Priest and Martyr
Tuesday:	St. Andrew Dũng-Lạc, Priest, and Companions, Martyrs
Wednesday:	St. Catherine of Alexandria, Virgin and Martyr
Thursday:	Thanksgiving Day
Next Sunday:	1st Sunday of Advent

REFLECT

FIRST READING:

Ezekiel speaks of God as the "shepherd" who will tend to his flock with great care and discerning judgment. What is this teaching us about God's divine nature?

SECOND READING:

Paul reveals to the Corinthians the divine place of the resurrected Jesus Christ in God's final plans for salvation history. As Lord of all things, including death itself, Jesus will hand over everything to God at the end of time. Does this revelation bring you comfort or distress?

GOSPEL:

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the final judgment that will accompany his Second Coming and the end of time. Jesus describes the final judgment in the stark and contrasting terms of eternal life or eternal punishment. Why do you think so many people avoid thinking about Judgement Day?
