Bulletin notices must be in the rectory office at least 1 week in advance of the publication date.

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

This weekend we have celebrated Christmas Day and the Feast of the Holy Family. As we journey in this holy season we place ourselves at the creche and give our love back to the child and family we celebrate. This coming Saturday, January 1st is not a holy day of obligation. There will be one mass in the morning for those who wish to participate at 9:00 a.m. for our Parishioners to begin the New Year. Happy New Year everyone!!!

WEEKLY SCRIPTURE REFLECTIONS
Today is the Feast of the Holy Family. What makes up a family? Love that we have for one another. The willingness to put others first rather than ourselves. We look to Jesus, Mary and Joseph as our role models to support what a family is. As we journeyed through our Advent days, we awaited the longing of the child Jesus to come to us. Today we look at this family of three persons who gives us the great example of how we should be for one another. Are we showing that love to our own family? Are we showing that love to our church family?
