THANK YOU! Christmas afternoon 2021 was a time of rejoicing and giving thanks for Ste. Marie's parishioners who gifted us with presents wrapped with love. Thank you ever so much for your generosity during this blessed season. Our gratitude is accompanied by our assurance of prayer for you in the New Year 2022. May the Holy Family walk with you each day and grace you with abundant love and joy as you live your days believing in God who dwells among us. Sisters of the Presentation of Mary at St. Joseph Residence

A Gift of Warmth and Hope
 St. Vincent de Paul delivered the parish coat donations to Harmony Home:
 140 winter coats for men and women
 Assorted hats, gloves, scarves & 450 "hot hands"
 Also delivered were 15 children's coats to Northwest Elementary School for those in need.
155 Coats!! Thank You!! for your generosity to our neighbors in need. Pray for those who received these gifts that it will be seen as a sign of hope in Jesus.

January Mitten Tree will be in the gathering space January 15/16. Add a warm hat, pair of mittens or scarf for children in need at neighborhood schools.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time - January 16, 2022

"There are a variety of gifts, but the same Spirit." Is the Holy Spirit leading you to share your gifts as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Contact the Vocation Office at (603) 663-0196 or email: mmason@rcbm.org.
