SAINT OF THE WEEK: St. Stephen

ened to the things of God.

Elizabeth Ann Bayley Seton was the first native born American to be canonized by the Catholic Church.

Born two years before the American Revolution, Elizabeth grew up in the upper class of New York society. She was a prolific reader, and read everything from the Bible to contemporary nov-

In 1794, Elizabeth married the wealthy young William Seton, with whom she was deeply in love. The first years of their marriage were happy and prosperous. Elizabeth wrote in her diary at first autumn, "My own home at twenty-the world-that and heaven too-quite impossible." Unfortunately, William died of tuberculosis while in Italy. Elizabeth's one consolation was that he had recently awak-

Elizabeth's deep concern for the spiritual welfare of her family and friends eventually led her into the Catholic Church.

Having lost her mother at an early age, Elizabeth felt great comfort in the idea that the Blessed Virgin was truly her mother. She asked the Blessed Virgin to guide her to the True Faith and officially joined the Catholic Church in 1805.

At the suggestion of the president of St. Mary's College in Baltimore, Maryland, Elizabeth started a school in that city. The school had originally been secular but once news of her entrance to Catholicism spread, several girls were removed from her school. It was then Seton, and two other young women who helped her in her work, began plans for a Sisterhood. They established the first free Catholic school in America. When the young community adopted their rule, they made provisions for Elizabeth to continue raising her children.

On March 25, 1809, Elizabeth Seton pronounced her vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience, binding for one year. From that time she was called Mother Seton.

Seton's favorite prayer was the 23rd Psalm and she developed a deep devotion to the Eucharist, Sacred Scripture, and the Virgin Mary.

For the last three years of her life, Elizabeth felt that God was getting ready to call her, and this gave her great joy. Mother Seton died in 1821 at the age of 46, only sixteen years after becoming a Catholic. She was beatified by Pope John XXIII on March 17, 1963 and was canonized on September 14, 1975 by Pope Paul VI.

Her feast day is January 4.

FROM FR. RYAN 'Love of Things Invisible'

Dear Friends.

Continued well-wishing to you and your families as the Christmas season unfolds!

You'll recall that we are observing a Year of the Eucharist in our diocese. With that in mind, I thought I'd take a few lines to share some things about our Eucharistic practices during the sacred liturgy.

During the distribution of Holy Communion, you may have noticed that the servers will sometimes accompany the priest or minister with a little bronze disc on the end of a handle. This is called a paten. It is held beneath the chin or hands of the communicant as he or she receives the sacred Host, and its purpose you can easily guess: the paten is there as a precaution in case the sacred host is dropped. The paten also catches small particles of the host that inevitably go astray.

You've also noticed that the chalice is covered with a veil at the beginning and end of Holy Mass. The ciborium in the tabernacle are also covered with a veil. In fact, veils are to be met with rather frequently in our traditional liturgical observances. Brides wear veils on their wedding days, and women will often wear veils or head-coverings when entering church. But the point of the veil is the same: it covers items and persons of special holiness. Entirely reasonable, then, that the chalice should be veiled during Mass.—For the same Blood that flowed from our Lord during His Passion is the same Blood contained in our chalices at Holy Mass.

Additionally, you may have noticed a little square item that is placed on top of the chalice before and after Mass. This is a burse; and looks like a little folder or envelope. Inside the burse is kept the corporal, which is the square piece of linen on which the chalice and Host rest during the Mass. Because the purpose of this linen is to catch particles of the sacred Host, it is placed inside the burse for protection.

Why are these things important? The answer comes from the Preface of Christmas: "as we recognize in Him God made visible, we may be caught up through Him in love of things invisible." Our outward observances point to love of God. By undertaking these seemingly small liturgical practices, we show our love and devotion to the Sacraments—the Sacraments in which God himself comes to visit us. Little wonder, then, that we take such loving pains in our worship!

God love you,

IR Mia
