wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.*

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself
wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION:

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception is TUESDAY, December 8. We will have three Masses to celebrate this solemnity. Masses will be at 8:30 AM, 12:10 noon and 5:30 PM. All the precautions will be in effect: wearing masks, physical distancing/spacing, etc. Also, keep in mind the capacity limit for our church is approximately 73 persons. Regrettably, we may not have more than that in church. The 12:10 noon Mass will be livestreamed on YouTube.

~CELEBRATING BAPTISM~

We joyfully welcome to our Faith Family:

HEAVEN-LANAE JUDSON

Who received the pledge of eternal life through the waters of Baptism!

Congratulations!

Music Ministry

DO YOU PLAY AN INSTRUMENT? If you or someone you know plays a musical instrument, you are invited to join our music ministry! We are asking for anyone who plays an instrument to share their talent during Masses, especially for Christmas and other special celebrations. Please contact Linda Raville, Director of Music. It would be awesome if we could get several more musicians involved in our music ministry program and to have more musical instruments at Mass.

For more information, please call Linda at 518-792-5859 or email her at saintmichaelmusic@nycap.rr.com. This is a great chance to share your musical talent with the parish during Mass. Thank you!

FAITH FORMATION NOTES

Many Americans are fascinated with England's monarchy. For many different reasons, we are drawn to the regal pageantry and all of the protocols associated with royal lifestyles. What's most amazing is that for all of the media attention focused on the comings and goings of English royalty, they really have very little effect on the day to day dealings of their country. Thoughts and images of kings and queens are often centered on this story book understanding of who and what they are. We associate protocols, etiquette, and proper words and actions to how we approach members of a royal family. These tools serve the necessary purpose of keeping them isolated, enthroned, and at a distance. There is something attractive about being an observer of ritual, pomp, and circumstance. It's almost theatrical.

Is this how we see Jesus Christ, too? We often behave as if Christ is an isolated, enthroned, royal, and even ineffective king. Jesus wants nothing to do with having the status of an earthly king. Jesus also does not want to be watched, observed, or set apart. He wants to get down and dirty with the very stuff of life especially the poor, marginalized, confused, hurting, lost, broken, imprisoned, and forgotten ones. Jesus is the king who turns the tables on us and wants not only our attention but our engagement and conversion. He wants us to get dirty too.

How we treat other people is at the heart of Christ's kingdom. "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." At different times in our lives we are all counted among the "least" ones. We may not be physically poor, but we can easily become emotionally and spiritually poor. We may not be marginalized as many physically are, cast aside because they have too many needs or don't quite fit in. But who hasn't experienced isolation, loneliness, inner turmoil, angst, heartache, or loss? Almost every human being has experienced brokenness at one point or another, or will most definitely at some future point, facing discouragement, fear, insecurity. People are thirsty for more than water. We are imprisoned by our prejudices, misconceived notions and ideas, self-focused obsessions and ideologies. There is a lot of pain and many least ones around us. Stop, look and listen. This is what Christ the King is asking us to do. Look deeply into the eyes and soul of your sisters and brothers, all of them, and see Christ himself.

Being a spectator and observing all of the pageantry isn't enough. Jesus wants us to inherit the kingdom and live the kingdom. It is built on the blocks of love, mercy, compassion, hope, faith, and blessing. It engages those who want it, changes and informs minds, inspires and transforms hearts, converts and renews souls, and sets things right. There is such a great need around us. Are you ready and willing to do whatever you can to serve in God's kingdom?

Dear Friends in Christ,

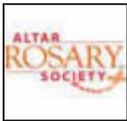

I hope everyone was able to have an enjoyable Thanksgiving, whether in person or virtually. It certainly had a strange feel this year, didn't it? Well, once again we begin Advent, which leads us to the celebration of Christmas—the Lord's birth in Bethlehem, as well as in our hearts. This year, however, the entire holiday season is marred by the ongoing Coronavirus pandemic and all the ways in which it has impacted all of humanity. There seems however, to be some similarities for this Advent, and in the days which led to Mary giving birth to her son. In our time, much of the world is weary from having to deal with the effects of the dreadful pandemic. Back in the time when Jesus was born, the Jewish people were also weary, being ruled by the heavy hand of the Roman Empire. Now, just as then, people were anxious for hope and help. It is in that spirit that I think we can set off on our Advent journey this year. This is a season of waiting, yes, but also, preparing. We wait on the great gift of God's love to be revealed in the flesh in the holy infant who is born in as unpleasant a place as possible back then. We hope now for the assurance that a vaccine for Coronavirus will be forthcoming imminently. When Jesus was born, he, Mary and Joseph were forced into exile, becoming refugees, not unlike the modern migrants we have witnessed in the news in the past years who are in dire need of refuge and support. If Advent is to have any meaning for us, especially this year, then we have to find ways that will enable God's love to again be brought into our troubled world, nation and homes. I hope and pray that each man, woman and child will take advantage of this season of grace to grow closer to Jesus and in so doing, find renewed hope in what it is we prepare for an entire month to celebrate, that is, the Nativity of Our Lord. Yes, our time now, like the time when Jesus was born share remarkable similarities. I hope that despite all the pain and loss that Coronavirus or other events of the past year have inflicted on humanity, that we will dig deep to connect with that holy infant's gift of life that ensures us of unending joy and glory.

Please watch for the special Advent/Christmas mailing that is being sent to all parish households this week detailing the activities and projects during Advent and our Christmas Mass schedule. Keep the Faith! God Bless.

THE 2020 "DIOCESAN APPEAL"

The 2020-21 Diocesan Appeal is underway throughout the Diocese. It has been renamed to more accurately reflect what the Appeal is about—our entire Diocese and the mission it has to carry out the work of Jesus. The Diocese has also changed how the Appeal is handled. The processing of all paperwork is done in Albany at the Diocesan offices and no longer here in the parish. Even though the name is changed, the mission which it supports has not.

Each parish and all households are asked, once per year, to provide the financial resources to carry out the work of Jesus with our gifts to ensure that this will continue. All of us share in the mission of Jesus Christ. Even amid the Coronavirus pandemic, the work of the Church continues. Masses are still celebrated, people's lives are touched and we all make that happen. Everyone one of us has a role to play in the success of the Diocesan Appeal. Your gift helps to ensure that the programs, ministries, offices and staff are equipped to fulfill the Gospel mandate. Each year, we are asked to make a gift toward this effort from our financial blessings, along with all our sisters and brothers in Christ. Your gift has a tremendous impact on the lives of so many people.

All households in our parish are asked to please make a generous gift to this year's Diocesan Appeal, so that we will not only reach our parish assessment, but, more importantly, respond to Jesus' call to carry out his mission. Keep in mind that last year, the Diocese granted our parish a substantial forgiveness of several previous year's outstanding debt that we did not pay. That in itself is a great incentive to give a gift this year!

I thank those in our parish who have already made a gift to the Diocesan Appeal. Know that it helps live out the message of St. Paul, "for we walk by Faith, not by sight" in his letter to the Corinthians, which is this year's theme.

Please use the envelope which the Diocese sent to make your gift. You may also give online at www.thediocesanappeal.org.
