TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

BAKLAVA IS MADE WITH 33 LAYERS OF DOUGH ~ FOR RELIGIOUS REASONS

The Ottoman Empire brought baklava to Greece. The Greeks gave it a particular twist, as a form of religious and cultural resistance.

The origins of baklava are uncertain. Its history is not at all well documented. Some ancient Greek desserts included in the famed Deipnosophistae ("The Dinner Experts," a 3rd-century-BC Greek text featuring classical recipes) might resemble baklava insofar as they're filled with nuts and honey, but lack the characteristic flakey dough. In its current form, food historians agree, baklava was most likely developed in the imperial kitchens of the Topkapi Palace in Constantinople – modern Istanbul. It is known that the Sultan presented trays of baklava to his Janissaries every 15th of the month of Ramadan, in a ceremonial procession. Baklava's arrival in Greece can be traced back to these imperial times. As the empire expanded its influence across the Middle East, the Balkans, and the Mediterranean, it brought with it the culinary traditions of the many territories it had already conquered, its imperial kitchens included. Baklava quickly became a popular sweet treat among both the royalty and commoners. The Ottomans ruled over Greece for centuries, introducing their culinary traditions, baklava included, to the region. As the Ottoman Empire reached its peak in the 16th and 17th centuries, baklava had firmly established itself in Greek cuisine. But then, the Greek gave it a particular twist – perhaps as a form of religious and cultural resistance. Typically, baklava is made with at least four layers of phyllo dough and two to three layers of nuts and syrup. Some more elaborate recipes call for up to 12 layers of phyllo dough and five or more layers of nuts and syrup. But Greek bakers and households make it with 33 dough layers, referring to the years of Jesus' life. Surely there are more changes to the traditional baklava recipe, incorporating local ingredients and regional variations. Today, Greek baklava is recognized for its use of honey and cinnamon, and a variety of nuts, such as walnuts and pistachios – but mainly because of its religious symbolism.

SAINT AUGUSTINE CEMETERY COLUMBARIUMS

Our cemetery recently added a second Columbarium for cremated remains. Our Columbariums are located by our shrine statue of Our Lady by Maryknoll Sister Marie Pierre Semler, titled the "Mother of the Thorn-Crowned". Each niche is designed to hold two urns. Please contact our Cemetery at (914) 941-6711 for more information.

A REMINDER FROM CARDINAL DOLAN ON CREMATION

While cremation is considered licit for Catholics, the reverent burial of the body is still the norm. If cremation is chosen, the remains of the deceased should still be present at the Funeral Mass, and must then be interred in a cemetery, not kept on the mantle, or scattered on the golf course, or stored in a closet, or worn as a trinket. As the ritual of the Church is clear:

"The cremated remains of a body should be treated with the same respect given to the human body from which they come. This includes the use of a worthy vessel to contain the ashes, the manner in which they are carried, the care and attention to appropriate placement and transport, and the final disposition. The cremated remains should be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium. The practice of scattering cremated remains on the sea, from the air, or on the ground, or keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative or friend of the deceased are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires. Whenever possible, appropriate means for recording with dignity the memory of the deceased should be adopted, such as a plaque or stone which records the name of the deceased." (Order of Christian Funerals, Appendix No. 417)

We have beautified St. Augustine Cemetery by planting eight (8) Acer Rubrum – Red Sunset” trees in the new section. The trees are numbered for your convenience. Six of them have already been purchased.

If you are interested in memorializing a tree for a loved one, please complete the form that is on the table in the vestibule and return it to the Parish Office.

The cost will be $2,500 per tree, which includes the bronze plaque. Payment can be made by check payable to: St. Augustine Church; credit card (please call the Parish Office for a Credit Card Payment Authorization form); or cash.

Are you someone or do you know someone who...

Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?

Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?

Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

At St. Augustine's, we offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharistic and Confirmation during the Easter season. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm, accepting setting.

For more information, please contact Patricia Barbera at (914) 941-6663 or Deacon John Barbera at (914) 941-0067 X 102.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is not a program, it is a process for life that begins now.
