FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

THE EXTRA BEAUTY OF BEING ELECTED POPE IN THE MONTH OF MAY

From Aleteia:

There's something quietly powerful about the timing of Pope Leo XIV's election. Not just the date — May 8, 2025 — but the month itself. As you'll no doubt be aware, May has long held a special place in the heart of the Church with it being a month devoted to the Virgin Mary. It's a time when devotion blossoms in ways that are both visible and unseen. All over the world, parishes crown statues of the Blessed Mother with fresh flowers. Children bring offerings of daisies and roses. Families gather once more to pray the Rosary, rediscovering the peace that comes from repetition and trust. It is a month marked not by drama, but by gentleness — by that maternal grace that consoles, strengthens, and quietly transforms. Therefore, to be elected pope in May is to begin a papacy under the gaze of the Mother of the Church. It is to enter into leadership not with loud declarations, but with a heart open to listening — just as Mary did. There is something deeply symbolic about this moment for Pope Leo XIV, who already seems to radiate a spirit of humility and pastoral closeness. His election doesn't feel like a break from the past, but a continuation of the quiet, steady work of healing and unity — hallmarks of Mary's presence in the Church. May is also a month of new life. It is when nature begins to sing again -- just as we imagine those seagulls were doing on the roof of the Sistine Chapel during the conclave! -- and when buds burst into bloom. Spiritually, it reminds us that hope never lies dormant for long. A new pope elected in this season becomes a kind of living symbol: that the Church, too, is always being renewed, always emerging with new beauty, new voices, new beginnings. And perhaps that's the greatest gift of all in this timing — that the world is being reminded that true leadership begins with surrender. Mary gave her "yes" in silence, and it changed history. Pope Leo XIV begins his journey surrounded by that same Marian grace, under her mantle, and with her maternal intercession.

In the month of Mary, we are not asked to be powerful. We are simply invited to trust. As we journey through this Marian month, perhaps we can take a moment each day to entrust Pope Leo XIV — and our own lives — to the care of Our Lady. Whether through a single Hail Mary or the full Rosary, let us ask her to guide this new chapter in the life of the Church with the same grace, courage, and peace that defined her own "yes." In a world longing for unity and mercy, may we become quiet instruments of both.

Mothers' Mount & Fathers' Court Stones

Commemorative stones to honor living or deceased mothers and/or fathers are still available to purchase for a donation of $150 each. Order forms are on the table in the vestibule.

HOW SAINT MICHAEL CONNECTS POPE LEO XIII TO POPE LEO XIV

From Aleteia:

Pope Leo XIV was elected to the papacy on May 8, a day that is traditionally connected to St. Michael the Archangel. Prior to Vatican II, the day was celebrated universally as the feast of the Apparition of St. Michael the Archangel at Gargano, Italy. While it was removed from the General Calendar, it is still celebrated locally in Italy and by those who follow the old calendar. According to tradition, St. Michael the Archangel appeared to an Italian bishop in 493 and consecrated a nearby cave. This became known as the Sanctuary of Monte Sant'Angelo sul Gargano, more commonly referred to as Monte Gargano. It is one of the oldest shrines dedicated to the archangel and was the center of Christian pilgrimages for many centuries. The dedication of this church is celebrated annually on May 8, along with several other encounters with St. Michael the Archangel that took place at this sacred site.

In 1886 Pope Leo XIII instituted what would later be known as the "Leonine Prayers" after Mass. These prayers include the well-known Prayer to St. Michael (which we recite after every Mass). Not much is known for certain about the origin of this prayer, but it is believed by many historians that Pope Leo had a profound vision that sparked its creation. According to Kevin Symonds, author of Pope Leo XIII and the Prayer to St. Michael, the vision likely occurred between 1884 and 1886 and took place during the celebration of Mass. Several different reports relate that Pope Leo had a visible change come over his face during the vision and one claims that his face was "pale and fearful." A cardinal at the time who knew the pope's private secretary explains that "Pope Leo XIII truly had a vision of demonic spirits, who were gathering on the Eternal City (Rome). From that experience ... comes the prayer which he wanted the whole Church to recite." Pope Leo XIII was well-known for his connection to St. Michael the Archangel and spread devotion to him throughout his pontificate. While Pope Leo XIV has yet to point out this connection, or to mention St. Michael, the "coincidence" is still notable, and time will tell whether Pope Leo XIV will also promote devotion to St. Michael the Archangel.
