We joyfully announce the forthcoming celebration of the Sacrament of Marriage and ask for a remembrance in your prayers for:

Michael Michell & Madeline Fritz ~ III
James Doherty & Elizabeth Roarty ~ I

Due to the amazing and greatly appreciated efforts of all of our volunteers and parishioners, we had a fun and outstanding 48th festival. It is with gratitude and delight that we announce that this year's festival realized over $120,064.

Many people came out to support this year's festival; and our sincere thanks go again to all of the volunteers, parishioners, friends and the Festival Committee who helped to make this another remarkable and profitable fundraiser.

It has been difficult to get new volunteers to help ease the workload of the people that do far too much already. In order to keep this event successful, more help is definitely needed!!! If you have not volunteered in the past, please consider joining us before, during, and/or after the festival next year to ease the workload!!

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MESSAGE FROM HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO XIV TO THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Dear friends,

I am pleased to greet all of you gathered in Washington, DC, for the 143rd Supreme Convention of the Knights of Columbus. I also greet those who are participating virtually in these opening ceremonies.

You are meeting during the Jubilee Year of Hope, which encourages the Universal Church, and indeed the entire world, to reflect on this essential virtue, which Pope Francis described as "the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite our not knowing what the future may bring." I'd like to reflect briefly with you on this important virtue.

As Catholics, we know that the source of our hope is Jesus Christ and he has sent his followers in every age to bring the good news of his saving Paschal Mystery to the entire world. The Church has always been called to be a sign of hope through the proclamation of the Gospel in words as well as in actions. In a particular way during this Holy Year, we are called to be tangible signs of hope for those of our brothers and sisters who experience hardships of any kind.

Your founder, Blessed Michael McGivney, understood this well. He saw the many needs of immigrant Catholics and sought to bring relief to the poor and suffering through his faithful celebration of the sacraments as well as through fraternal assistance, fraternal assistance which continues on to this day.

This year's Convention has the timely theme of "Heralds of Hope," reminding all Knights of Columbus of the invitation to be signs of hope in your local communities, parishes, and families. In this regard, I commend your efforts to bring together men in your communities for prayer, formation, and fraternity, as well as the many charitable efforts of your local Councils throughout the world. In particular, your generous service to vulnerable populations, including the unborn, pregnant mothers, children, those who are less fortunate, and those affected by the scourge of war, brings hope and healing to many and continues the noble legacy of your founder.

With these brief words, I offer my good wishes for the work of the Supreme Convention, which I entrust to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, and to the intercession of Blessed Michael McGivney. And may the blessing of Almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit come down on you and remain with you forever. Amen.

Pope Leo XIV

WITHOUT THIS SAINT, AUGUSTINE MAY NOT HAVE WRITTEN HIS "CONFESSIONS"

From Aletea

St. Paulinus asked for an autobiography; what Augustine wrote surpassed all expectations and has endured as a spiritual classic for centuries.

Governor of the southern Italian province of Campania, Saint Paulinus gave up his privileged position in the Roman Empire to devote himself to a life of prayer along with his wife Therasia. During this time Paulinus began to converse with several bishops, such as St. Jerome and St. Augustine. He became familiar with Augustine through correspondence with St. Alypius, who was a lifelong friend of Augustine and bishop at Thagaste. It was through this correspondence that Paulinus wanted to learn more about Alypius and asked Alypius to write some autobiographical information. What happened next would forever impact Western civilization.

Originally a biography of St. Alypius

Alypius, not wanting to write about his own life, forwarded the request to his friend Augustine, who knew him very well. Augustine in turn wrote a letter to Paulinus describing the chain of events and how he intended to fulfill the request: "When [Alypius] had read your request, desiring him to write for you a sketch of his history ... I, seeing him unable to decide between the respective claims of love and humility, transferred the burden from his shoulders to my own ... I shall therefore, with God's help, soon place in your heart Alypius just as he is." As Alypius was a lifelong friend, Augustine's own experience and conversion were interwoven with Alypius' story, resulting in something beyond expectation. Paulinus wrote back after reading Augustine's writings and felt much closer to him than before: "By the kindness of the venerable bishops Aurelius and Alypius, we came to know you through your writings against the Manichæans, love for you has taken such a place in us, that we seemed not so much to be acquiring a new friendship as reviving an old affection." So what began as a biography of St. Alypius soon "grew legs" and expanded into Augustine's own Confessions. It appears that the world owes a debt of gratitude to St. Paulinus, who didn't realize that in asking Alypius for a sketch of his own history, he would receive in return one of the first -- and still among the greatest -- autobiographical works ever written.
