Dear Saint Luke
Parish Family...

From Father's Desk

Live your life and Love your life

A friend of mine sent this message to me and I thought it was interesting and so I am sharing it with you.

Our spiritual maturity is very much connected to our mental maturity. And the following are some of the characteristics of maturity of mind.

1. Correcting ourselves without trying to correct others.
  2. Accepting others with their short comings.
  3. Understanding the opinions of others from their perspectives.
  4. Learning to leave things that are to be avoided in life.
  5. Leaving the expectations from others. (Expect less and give more)
  6. Doing whatever we do with peace of mind.
  7. Avoiding to prove our intelligence to others.
  8. Avoiding the state of mind that others should accept our actions.
  9. Avoiding the comparisons of ourselves with others.
  10. Trying to keep peace of mind without worrying about anything.
  11. Understanding the difference between what we need and what we want.
  12. Reaching the state of mind that happiness is not connected with material things.
- Our life will be simpler and happier if only we practice 7 or 8 of the above 12.

Try it ... you might like it...

A Reminder and Invitation to parishioners and guests who may have limited mobility...

We want to make it as easy as possible for you to participate fully in the Mass, especially in receiving communion.

We suggest that the best way to facilitate this is that you choose a place in the front pew on either side or in the areas with the blue chairs to the right or left of the sanctuary. The side seating option seems to be the most convenient place for those of you who use wheelchairs, and serves as a visual reminder to our Eucharistic Ministers.

If it is difficult for you to make your way to these areas, please notify one of the ushers, who will then convey your request to one of the Eucharistic Ministers. We're so happy to have you with us in our prayer!

Also... please remember that gluten-free hosts can be available for you by request to the priest before Mass.

Rosary Group

Many thanks to all who participated in our Rosary and Novena throughout March and April. We will continue to pray the rosary every Saturday morning at 8:30 following morning Mass. ## URGENT NEED FOR CHAPERONE for our teen guys...

Catholic Heart provides a wonderful week long opportunity for the teens to grow in their Catholic faith, serve others and meet other Catholic teens. This year we are headed to Knoxville, TN from June 26-July 2 and befitting to the theme of "upside down" we have lost our chaperone for our guys. With less than 7 weeks to the trip, we have an urgent need to find a male chaperone who is over 21. The chaperones fully participate in the week of service. We sleep in classrooms at a Catholic High School and go off to a worksite each day to work alongside teens from other groups. I am hopeful that someone will come forward as we are unable to go if we can't find another adult. The chaperone trip is paid, thanks to the extraordinary generosity of our Outreach Ministry who gifted SLY the funds from the proceeds of the Harvest Fair. Please call Deb Toner for more information at (203) 981-8817.

"Gods' ways are not our ways, they are better. Join us this summer to further discover what Gods' upside down approach to life looks like."

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 15, 2022

5th Sunday of Easter

"It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God." Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It's no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God's wisdom clearly takes us in another direction.

Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless. Helen Keller remarks that, "a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships." What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what's important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before.

This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it's authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that's why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Reluctant Sheep

Sheep get an awfully bad rap, linguistically. Some are quick to label people as “sheep” if we think they haven’t sufficiently questioned authority or if they’re too willing to go along with someone else’s plan. We say someone has “the wool over their eyes” if they aren’t willing to see what we think is very obvious. “A wolf in sheep’s clothing” is what we call someone looking to take advantage of those too gullible to identify a real threat.

Taking all this into account and considering how often we are referred to as sheep in Scripture, you’ve really got to wonder if God is trying to tell us something about ourselves.

If you look at the phraseology associated with sheep, it’s no wonder that nobody wants to be one. Sheep are innocent. Sheep can’t protect themselves. They’re vulnerable and easily misled.

We want to see ourselves as the opposite of all that. We like to think we’re shrewd, with plenty of common sense. We want to believe that we don’t have to rely on anybody for anything. We would sooner identify with the wolf than with the sheep — at least the wolf can take care of himself.

We do this because we often resist the need to rest in the greatness of God. Like a child walking to school alone for the first time (forgetting his mom is following watchfully in the car), we want to think we can handle it all by ourselves.

The truth is that God is trying to tell us something by comparing us to sheep: You don’t have to do this on your own.

Every time I look at an obstacle and think that there is no way around it, I am forgetting that I have a shepherd who knows the location of the gate.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

THANK YOU!!! A huge thank you to the various ministries of St. Luke for so generously giving of their time to share their thoughts with us for the Synod on Synodality. Our thanks go to the Men's Group, all involved with Religious Education including our youth and catechists, Fr. Kumar's Book Club, Sister Maureen's Outreach Ministries, and the many parishioners who participated in the group listening sessions in person or on zoom as well as those who offered their thoughts via email or one-on-one. Special thanks also go to Deacon Brian Kelly who helped prepare us for this undertaking by offering an insightful and constructive "how to" tutorial on our approach to the listening sessions, for the guidance of Deacon Steve Hodson who is leading the Synodal process for the entire Diocese, to Fr. Kumar for his encouragement and to Sister Maureen for offering her wisdom and sharing her experience to help get this project off the ground. For us, the process was as informative, enlightening and enriching as the outcome! It was wonderful to hear the experiences of our parishioners on their faith journey, as well as their hopes and vision for the future of the Church. The final summary of your collected input in these sessions has been shared with Deacon Steve who will then summarize the input from all the parishes of the diocese and present them to Bishop Frank. The input from our diocese will be added to that of the entire country and be brought to Rome to be presented to Pope Francis. Seen in this larger picture, our contribution to this massive undertaking may seem small but it has already produced positive results—most notably in the strengthening and forming of new relationships and a renewed prayer life in our parish. Thanks again for your time and for sharing your thoughts with us—please know that you are appreciated and your thoughts matter!

Dear Parish Family,

The 2022 Bishop's Appeal provides the funds for the pastoral, educational and charitable ministries of the Diocese of Bridgeport. This year's theme, A Bridge Home, highlights hope, renewal and evangelization in our Diocese and invests in services that continue to engage those in their faith and build a strong bridge to so many who are struggling. I am sure you have received your appeal mailing. Please take time to read the information and prayerfully consider giving a sacrificial gift to the campaign.

This year our parish goal is $185,500.00. Your gifts big and small will go a long way in supporting the different ministries of our diocese. So, please consider supporting the bishop's appeal 2022 and help achieve our goal. Every dollar contributed above our goal comes back to help fund the operational and maintenance needs of OUR PARISH, of which there are many.

May the Peace of the Lord be with you and your families!

Father Kumar
