

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

January 23, 2022
3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

LEND A HELPING HAND AND A SMILE!

Many seniors find themselves homebound and alone. Warm a senior's life by investing time to an isolated senior through a friendly visit, a ride to the grocery store/medical apt. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer in the Kennebec Valley or are a senior in need of services, please contact the SEARCH/RSVP program- Lynn Kidd (207)530-0137/lkidd@ccmaine.org.

Catholic Relief Services

Pope Francis urges us to care for those around the world who are suffering in poverty, live under oppressive regimes, exposed to covid without access to adequate healthcare, and on the move as refugees. A good way to do this is to support the efforts of Catholic Relief Services (CRS). CRS is the arm of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops that helps people around the world directly and indirectly by lobbying for better public policies. The St. Michael Parish Social Justice Commission is working with other parishes to form a Maine support chapter for CRS's public policy efforts. There will be an organizing meeting in January, and monthly meetings thereafter. If you feel called to put your faith into action to help create lasting change for those experiencing poverty, injustice, and human rights abuses around the world, then this is an excellent opportunity. For more information email Frank O'Hara at frankomaine@gmail.com. To learn more about the work of Catholic Relief Services, visit www.crs.org.

Catholic Charities Corner

Giggles and grins abound at Catholic Charities Maine's two nationally-accredited child development centers — St. Elizabeth's in Portland and St. Louis in Biddeford — where 300+ children receive educationally-enriching, nurturing care every year.

HOPE

REFORMING THE MAINE JUSTICE SYSTEM

Last year the St. Michael Social Justice Commission sponsored a virtual session on prison reform and volunteering entitled "Hope Beyond Bars." A lot has transpired in the past year, so we are sponsoring an updated session 'Hope Beyond Bars: Part 2' to share where reform efforts now stand and to hear about exciting new opportunities for volunteering.

The session will include: Frank Ober, parishioner from St. Denis in Whitefield, and long-term participant in the Dismas Ministry, talking about the spiritual dimension of prison ministry; Charlotte Warren, Chair of the Criminal Justice and Public Safety Committee, talking about legislative reform efforts and courtwatching needs; and Bruce Noddin, founder of the Maine Prisoner Re-entry Network, discussing a variety of volunteer opportunities.

The session will be held on Wednesday, February 9, 2022 from 7-8:30 pm via Zoom. All are welcome to attend. To register, email gina.czerwinski@portlanddiocese.org.
