Pastor's Musings

This weekend is a transition from the birth of a baby and all that surrounded his birth to his mission as an adult (doing what God the Father asked of him).

In the baptism of Jesus by John the Baptist, we are presented with the involvement of our triune God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Note that Jesus presents himself to John the Baptist and asks to be baptized. At first, John hesitates to baptize Jesus. It is Jesus who insists that John baptize him.

John leads Jesus into the River Jordan and dunks Jesus into the water of the River. Being dunked under water is said to have us recall the story of Noah and the great flood when the water of the flood crushed evil in the world and initiated a new beginning. Jesus being dunked and then re-emerging from the water is the crushing of evil and a new beginning through Jesus.

Note the participation of the fullness of God at work. The Spirit of God descends upon Jesus and the Father proclaims Jesus to be his Son, the one he has sent into the world to end what separates us from God and to manifest what loving God and our neighbor looks like in the eyes of God.

While we do not experience Baptism in the same way (we do not go down to the Connecticut River to be immersed in the waters of the River), we are meant to understand our experience of Baptism as initiating a way of life introduced by Jesus and energized by the life of the Spirit of God who is present within us through Baptism.

God bless,
fr. Mark
