Pastor's Musings

* Thank you for your generous response to last weekend's collection for Franciscan Missions - $3,623.85. This will certainly help my confreres in the missions.

* Thursday is the Feast of the Ascension of our Lord. It is a holy day of obligation. Masses on Thursday will be at 9 am and 5:30 pm.

To understand its significance, the Ascension of the Lord needs to be seen in relation to Pentecost, the sending of the Holy Spirit.

Bishop Robert Barron refers us to the Our Father which bridges heaven and earth: "...thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven..." He says: "this is not a prayer that we might escape from the earth, but rather that earth and heaven might come together."

He notes that the first Christians saw the Resurrection of Jesus as the initiation of the process by which earth and heaven were being reconciled. Bishop Barron further notes that what began with the Lord's Resurrection is the mission and work of Jesus' disciples.

He, therefore, sees the Ascension of Jesus linked to Pentecost. "In the Ascension, something of the earth moves into the heavenly sphere, and at Pentecost, something of heaven - the Holy Spirit - invades the earth. The two events constitute a foretaste of a great reconciliation....."

Bishop Barron points to the words spoken by the angels to the disciples who witnessed the Ascension: "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky?" What the angels said and "none too subtly - is: under the influence of Jesus' spirit, get to work! Do all that you can to foster the marriage of heaven and earth! Get on with the mission...."

* Bishop Barron's reflection on the Ascension pairs well with the request of our Bishop for us to observe a Novena for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit from the Feast of the Ascension to the Feast of Pentecost (See Bishop's Reidy's letter in this weekend's bulletin.)

*The Parish's Women's Group will be offering a Women's Tea on Thursday at 7 pm in the Parish Hall. (See the information blurb in this weekend's bulletin.)

* Father's Day will be here before you know it. You might want to have your dad, grandfather, godfather and/or that special person who has been like a father to you remembered in our Parish's Novena of Father's Day Masses (June 14-22). Those who use Parish envelopes received a special Father's Day envelope for this. At the doors of the Church, there are Father's Day cards and return envelopes. And for those of you who do not need a card, there are GREEN forms. Please PRINT all requested information.

All special Father's Day envelopes, return envelopes and GREEN forms are due Sunday, June 8.

God bless,
fr. Mark

MOST REVEREND
RICHARD F. REIDY

May 9, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is with great joy that I assume my new role as your Bishop in the Diocese of Norwich. I am rapidly becoming familiar with our diocesan family, listening to the needs of the people, and learning about the challenges that face us. I am discovering the wonderful faith of the People of God in our region, and I look forward to getting to know all of you as I continue the work of my predecessors to make our Church of Norwich a strong and vital part of the Body of Christ.

While acting as administrator of our diocese, Archbishop Coyne, highlighted the importance of promoting vocations to the priesthood, assigning Father Jeff Ellis as the full-time Director of Vocations and asking the parishes to pray for vocations at every Mass with a priority of exercising priestly vocations. I intend to continue this focus. Priests are charged with bringing the grace of God to the faithful through the sacraments, the grace that is vital for our holiness and salvation. Priests carry on the work of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who came to preach the word of God, to offer sacrifice to the Father, and to sanctify His people. Priests have been given the solemn charge to serve the faithful by the gift of their ordination, being configured as alter Christus, another Christ.

Next weekend, we will be taking up a collection in all of our parishes to support the work of preparing future priests for service in the Diocese of Norwich. It is not an inexpensive task to educate and form good and holy priests. As young men give the gift of themselves for service to our Lord and His Church, we can all assist in this good work by donating to this collection.

I have also met with many of our Permanent Deacons, whose service to our diocese is greatly appreciated and valuable to our parishes. Over the coming months, I will be exploring further ways our present and future deacons can continue their valuable service in our diocese. We are also enriched by the dedication, holiness and hard work of many religious whose vocations are a great blessing for us. We must pray for all vocations. For the moment, though, Father Ellis' priority will continue to be the recruitment and formation of seminarians for the diocesan priesthood. Already, we are seeing the fruits of the Holy Spirit, as several young men have begun discerning a priestly vocation with the diocese in the last several months. God-willing, we will have many seminarians to support in formation in the years to come.

I thank you for your generosity in having supported this collection in the past and ask for your prayerful consideration of support for this year's collection. May our Lord continue to bless our Church with good and holy priests.

With every prayerful best wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Richard F. Reidy

My dear friends in Christ,

Thank you all very much for your very warm welcome of me as your new Bishop.

As I meet with priests, deacons, and parishioners and make my way around the Diocese to parish Masses, Confirmations, school visits, Holy Hours, and dinner events, I am reminded how fortunate I am to be with you in our diocese. Thank you for all you do.

I am also acutely aware that all the good I hope to do together with you for God and His people depends utterly on God's grace. To that end, I am endeavoring to keep in mind the necessity of prayer and the grace of the Holy Spirit.

Each day in the Easter Season, the Acts of the Apostles reminds us that the conversion of the Apostles, the fruit that they bore and the people they drew to the early Church began with Pentecost which they anticipated by devoting themselves with one accord to prayer.

To that end, I am asking that on the nine days between the Ascension and Pentecost, from May 30 to June 7, you pray the following brief novena for a deepening of the gifts of the Holy Spirit in Pope Leo and in all our bishops, priests, deacons, religious and lay faithful with the intention of sparking a new Pentecost in the Diocese of Norwich that we may continue and build upon all the good that has gone on in our local Church. The novena prayers are brief. Perhaps, they could be prayed after daily Mass or at home through the link on the diocesan website: www.norwichdiocese.org.

Again, thank you for your welcome, all you do and your dedication to God and His people.

With every prayerful good wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Richard F. Reidy
