Pastor's Musings

* Thank you for your generous response to last weekend's collection for the Seminary Education Fund of the Diocese of Norwich - $ 3,830.00.

It is no secret that the Church as a whole, especially our own Diocese, is in need of priests to continue the mission of Jesus. Like the men Jesus called to be his followers when he walked this earth, a priest relies on the presence of God's Spirit to be a source of strength and wisdom.

* Next Sunday is the feast of Pentecost.

At Christmas, we celebrate the gift God, the Father, gave us by sending his Son into the world. The Father's gift of his Son was to shed light on who we are in the Father's eyes, his love for us, and his wanting of not having anything stand in our way of being with him for all eternity.

Pentecost is like Christmas. It is the Father sending his Spirit so that he might be with us for all time to help us make our way in the world. The Spirit is our GPS, but more than that. The Spirit does not only offer guidance on how to get to our destination (eternal life), but empowers us to make the journey.

As you know, we are in the midst of the Novena to the Holy Spirit requested by our Bishop. He is asking us to pray for him and our Diocese as we emerge from the bankruptcy process. He is asking us to pray for the gift of wisdom and empowering energy to meet the challenges that lay before us.

* Next weekend, all Father's Day envelopes, returned envelopes from the Father's Day cards and the GREEN forms are due.

The Father's Day Novena of Masses (June 14-22) is a way to remember and pray for our dads, grandfathers, godfathers, and those who have been like a father to us, whether living or deceased.

There are a limited number of Father's Day cards and return envelopes at the doors of the Church. If you do not need a card, there are GREEN forms at the doors of the Church.

Please PRINT all requested information.

God bless,
fr. Mark

Little Jesus Project 2025
God is with you always.

A Little Jesus Packet will be given out next weekend (after the 4pm Mass on June 7 and the 7:30 & 9:30am Masses on June 8). All Faith Formation students are welcome to participate. Send photos of your summer adventures with Little Jesus to dre@saintjohn-cromwell.org You may choose to be in the photo or not. Some photos will be published in the parish bulletin and online in our website's photo album. Each adventure will enter you into a raffle drawing to be held on Catechetical Sunday. This was a fun project last year and we're hoping our 2nd year of the Little Jesus Project will be another success!
