PARISH NEWS

CRS RICE BOWL -- Fourth Week of Lent -- As we move through Lent and travel in solidarity with Catholic Relief Services, this week we encounter Kumba from Sierra Leone, who, through her education, is providing hope for her family and community. How has education given you opportunities in life? How do you use your education for the common good? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Also, let us keep in prayer the four employees of Catholic Relief Services who were among the dead in the March 10 crash of the Ethiopian Airlines jet. Many faith-based humanitarian workers lost their lives in this tragedy.

BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL -- Thanks to those who supported diocesan ministries through the in-pew appeal portion of the campaign. You can always contribute to the campaign online by going to: <https://diometuchen.org/ways-to-give/>

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA) -- Please keep our elect in your continuing prayers as we move through the Rite of Scrutinies during the 10am Mass on the Sundays prior to Holy Week. Our large group of elect will soon become fully-initiated members of the Church Universal as well as Holy Family Parish.

CONNECT -- with our ongoing parish groups, including: the Martha & Mary Crafts Group, 6:30pm on Mondays in the Sacred Heart hall; the Leisure Club, 10am Tuesdays at St. Joseph hall; Zumba classes 9:15am Monday-Friday in the Sacred Heart hall; Flores de Maria leadership and service group for girls, bi-monthly meetings; Society of St. Vincent de Paul, monthly meetings. Find out more about these groups by talking to any pastoral team member.

EASTER BUNNY CHOCOLATES - SVDP is collecting cute bunny chocolates to distribute to the kids come Easter time. Kindly place your donations in the receptacles provided in back of our three churches. Thank you for your support.

Asimismo, mantengamos en oración a los cuatro empleados de Catholic Relief Services que se encontraban entre los muertos en el accidente del 10 de marzo del avión Ethiopian Airlines. Muchos trabajadores humanitarios basados en la fe perdieron la vida en esta tragedia.

Saint Ladislaus Church @ Holy Family Parish

“[The Father] said to him, ‘My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now [it is just] to celebrate and rejoice, because [he whom is] your brother was dead and has come back to life again; he was lost and has returned.’” Lk 15:31-32

Which son do we associate with?

We like to think that we are the older son, but when taken to task, we act like the younger. We agree to our wages as the workers in the field, but when those that arrive late get the same deal, we are indignant and upset and vengeful. Mt 20:1-15 We feel treated unfairly, when our higher-ups praise those over us, whom have done little or nothing, while we make things happen. Or siblings that come visit now and then, bring a useless gift of forgiveness, are praised by the same parent, who we have been faithfully attending. It's hard to see the justness in God's actions when you are looking for justice. Because God is not justice of any sort, He is justness of every sort. He is loving in every moment that man wants to do right. That is why heaven rejoices for the one lost soul that is saved, even though 99 remained righteous. Lk 15:7

Few of us associate with the younger prodigal son, yet there were and are times that we could have easily been him. Do we truly follow God's commandments or do we pick and choose depending on the day of the week and the situation at hand? Is it not easier to be part of the bad boys club, than to do the right thing? Why sure it is. How many times do we answer as Peter did, "I do not know the man!" Mt 26:74, so we don't have to face others' surprise, bewilderment or scorn? It's just easier to avoid bringing attention to ourselves for such virtuous things, because nothing is virtuous and holy or sacred anymore. It's comfortable!

Everything around us is gray. If you try to make it black or white, it is an affront to those that don't believe. For them, it is okay to make you uncomfortable, but not the other way around. So, what do good Catholics do: they leave it gray, because then it won't offend anyone. They hear people say, "don't judge" Mt 7:2, but what those people are really saying is don't condemn my sin and sinfulness. That is exactly the opposite of what God has asked us to do by His commandments. You are to judge between right and wrong, between sin and righteous behavior, between good and evil. As Christians, we are to judge our actions and those of others, but not the person that commits those actions: for it is not you, nor God, but their sin that will condemn them. Jn 5:45, Mt 13:41, Proverbs 17:15

But then, it will be uncomfortable. It will be a sacrifice to live His word, and it will be quite apparent that you are not like others; it will be rather obvious that you are Catholic.
