*A Sunday Reflection
by István Horváth*

“For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.” Lk 19:10 Just as God, the Father has done from man's creation “... rebuking offenders little by little, warning them, and reminding them of the sins they are committing, that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in [Him], The Lord ... Condemning them by degrees, giving them space for repentance. And giving His children reason to hope that He would allow them to repent for their sins.” Wis 12:2, 10a, 19b

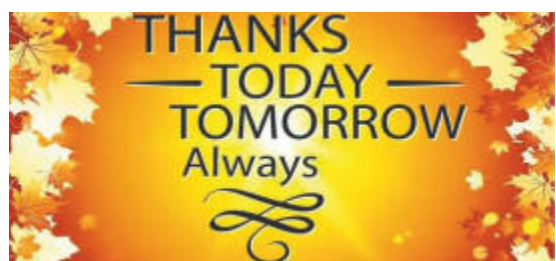

Have we ever felt in a particular situation "God is trying to tell me something?" Of course, but the question is really, what did we do in reply? Did we look for other signs and seek out His will for ourselves, or did we just continue in our ways and write it off as a stroke of bad luck?

We are afraid of true faith in the Living God!

We would rather deal with the afflictions of a bad decision we make then confront our conscience to see the truth. And God waits, and waits and ... Waits for us to come to our senses.

"We ought to give thanks to God for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth. [Because] to this end he has [also] called us through [the words of] the Gospel to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. " 2Thes 2:13-14

Infinite love is practiced with infinite patience. So, we should also give thanks to God that He waited for us to find Him, before it was too late.
