THE PILLARS OF LENT As we begin our Lenten journey, reflect on how your prayers, fasting and almsgiving can guide you. As Pope Francis explains, these are “elements which, when lived sincerely, can transform life and provide a sure foundation for dignity and fraternity.” How can practicing the Lenten pillars transform your life and the lives of our sisters and brothers around the world? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

March 6, 2022 - 1st Sunday of Lent

“I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me.” (DEUTERONOMY 26:10)

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your “first fruits” - the first and best that you have to offer, or do you give from what you have leftover? Second, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? Ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

6 de marzo de 2022 - 1er. Domingo de Cuaresma

“Ahora he traído los primeros frutos de la tierra que tú, Señor, me has dado” (DEUTERONOMIO 26: 10)

Esta línea del Antiguo Testamento nos ofrece dos retos. Primero, ¿le entrega a Dios sus “primeros frutos”? los primeros y mejores que usted tiene para ofrecer, ¿o le está dando lo que le sobra? Segundo, ¿se da cuenta de que todo lo que es y todo lo que tiene le ha sido dado por Dios? Pídale a Dios que le dé un corazón agradecido y generoso, cada día, y en cualquier circunstancia.

*A Sunday Reflection
by István Horváth
March 6, 2022*

Jesus said to the devil ... "It is also written, You shall not put the Lord, your God to the test." Lk 4:12, Ex 17:2, Dt 6:16

How many times have we cried out to our God, "if there is a God why won't he take away my pain and suffering, or why won't he give me ... what I ask, or why did he let ... this happen?"

Do we ever say, "God I offer up my affliction, my suffering, my hurt, my deprivation, and myself to you, because your Son, Jesus died for me and for my sins on the cross, so that I may live?"

We go to great lengths to blame others for our plight, yet our situation is a result of our own actions, faults and/or our iniquities. We even blame God. Why not? He didn't intervene. But, do we make an effort to blame ourselves, or our sinfulness for our actions? What if we had the power to strike down those that dishonor, hurt and persecute us. Would we? Is "eye for and eye and tooth for a tooth" the Christian way of life? Mt 5:38

No it is not. Love is the Christian way of life. Not affectionate love, but rather suffering love as Jesus did for us: love in response to hate, we receive, and empathy for the marginalized and afflicted. This is what Jesus meant by following the laws of Moses in spirit not just in word. Jn 5:45-47, Mt 23

Therefore, there is a judgment we must make each and every time we make a decision. This is to uphold God's laws whether they condemn us as well, or to apply them only when they benefit us. The best way to look at it is: if we first accuse and convict ourselves, and then see if they have also hurt someone else in the act. Because if we are sure that we are right, most certainly we are not. Justice can only come from God and be directed towards man, and not the other way around. And this is, because complete and perfect love can only come from God alone. Man can only attempt to love with God's grace.

And so "whomever thinks they are standing on secure ground [and righteous] should take care not to fall." 1 Cor 10:12 "For as you judge, so will you be judged, and the measure with which you measure will be measured out to you." Mt 7:1-2, Lk 6:37

Of course this implies that we are doing God's will in our lives, following His Commandments and living His plan. Then, and only then can we judge according to His will and be on sure ground. The devil is in the details, but most often it is in our own actions of selfishness.
