WALMART GIFT CARDS FOR CHRISTMAS

St Vincent De Paul Society plans to distribute WALMART gift cards in time for the Christmas celebrations. They are asking for donations of WALMART gift cards to give to families as their Christmas presents. City buses go to both local Walmart stores which makes it easier for those who only use public transportation.

Kindly put your gift card donations in the collection baskets during any of our Masses and/or drop them off at the parish center. May we be one of the reasons to put smiles on children's faces this Christmas time. Thank you for your generosity and continued support.

TARJETAS DE REGALO DE WALMART PARA NAVIDAD

La Sociedad de San Vicente de Paul planea distribuir tarjetas de regalo de WALMART a tiempo para las celebraciones navideñas. Estamos solicitando donaciones de tarjetas de regalo de WALMART para dar a las familias como regalo de Navidad. Los autobuses de la ciudad van a las dos tiendas locales de Walmart, lo que hace que sea más fácil para quienes solo usan el transporte público. Por favor, coloque las donaciones de su tarjeta de regalo en las canastas de colecta durante cualquiera de nuestras misas y/o déjelas en el centro parroquial. Que seamos uno de los motivos para poner sonrisas en los rostros de los niños esta Navidad. Gracias por su generosidad y apoyo continuo.

A Sunday Reflection
by István Horváth

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Be attentive [and be prepared], for you know not the day nor the hour [the Lord calls you].” Mt 25:13

Jesus’ Parable of the Ten Virgins seems to indicate that preparedness is the key to gaining entrance to the Kingdom of Heaven, because the wise virgins brought extra flasks of oil for their lamps in case they may need to use them the whole night through. However, they too fell asleep while the bridegroom was delayed, and they were not much for charity when they were asked to share. What is Jesus saying about preparedness and attentiveness if it is not for charity towards your neighbor?

The answer lies in the understanding of the parables in sequence to each other not just on their own merit. In the events leading to the Parousia, the Second Coming of the Son of Man there is to be a time of calamities followed by great tribulation, and even though one does not know the hour or the day, the faithful servants will be the ones who continue His works of good in the face of all this turmoil.

Mt Ch 24 The faithful servants will not despair or lead others to despair, but prepare their souls for the coming of the Bridegroom, Jesus Christ. This preparation can not be shared, it must be done by each his own, and even if we stumble or fall asleep, we must get up and continue our vigilance. The final test of good deeds is the Parable of Talents, where if we used the gifts granted us to the best of our ability and invested them well in helping ourselves, as well as others towards acquiring eternal life, we are assured of attaining it. Mt 25:14-30 Then comes the Judgment, granted the Son by the Father to separate the goats from the sheep.

Mt 25:31-46 The goats that devour life for their own benefit and consume all who are around them into the same dismal mire, suffer the same wrath prepared for the devil and his agents. They, the goats are separated from the sheep who lay down their lives to be martyred or give up the luxuries of earthly life for the benefit of others. Their souls are saved and cleansed in the blood of the Lamb (Rev 7:14b), Jesus. “He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more mourning, wailing or pain, [the wrongs of evil will have been righted], for the old state of things will have passed away.” Rev 21:4

In this respect the wise virgins are not disingenuous and uncharitable, but rather wise with the wisdom of the Spirit as Solomon notes, “Resplendent and unfading is Wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her, and whoever keeps vigil for her is quickly free from all their cares.” Wis 6:12,15b So too is receiving the Spirit through Sanctifying Grace, that Wisdom comes to those that seek it beyond all earthly treasure in Jesus Christ, Our Lord.
