FIFTH WEEK OF LENT
EMBODYING THE LOVE OF CHRIST
BY CARING FOR ONE ANOTHER

Reflect on your Lenten journey thus far: What have you learned from our global family members in Uganda, El Salvador and Indonesia? How does the Eucharist unite us with our sisters and brothers around the world? Consider how Christ is present in Adolf and Florence, Sandra and Santos, and Evita.

*A Sunday Reflection
by István Horváth*

Fifth Sunday in Lent

Jesus said to His disciples, “Father, glorify your name.” To which the Father answered, “I have glorified it and I will glorify it again.” Jn 12:28

My time has come. One would say, who has a purpose. Jesus says the same to His disciples. If we follow Jesus by imitating His life of example for God’s Kingdom on earth, our lives too have a purpose. In fact, every life born into this world has a purpose. There is nothing that exists in the natural world that does not have a purpose, however only man has the purpose of serving his God.

How do we know this? We know this, because our lives have been ransomed through Jesus Christ by the Father so that our souls may live to eternity; we know this, because by imitating the Son we inherit eternal life through Him; we know this, because Christ, the Son of Man suffered and died on the cross for us. Sure, He died for our sins as well, but that was not the original intent of the Father. The intent of the Father from all eternity was to bring man into Communion with Him through His Son. Jn 17:24 This purpose was above all purposes, and this purpose meant that God’s intention has always been to serve man so that man would find purpose in serving Him: yes, true love, agape. Mt 20:28

“Father, glorify your name” meaning exalt and raise your Son to yourself. The Father answers: I have raised him up (that is mankind) and I will raise him up again. Jn 12:28, 13:31, 17:1b-3, 8:28 But this time, “I will make an everlasting covenant. I will plant my law within them, and I will write it upon their hearts. Everyone, from least to greatest, shall know me.” Jer 31:33b, 34b, 32:40. Because the New Covenant with God and man is inside us, as temples of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, the resurrected life of Christ inside us transforms us with His graces.

God’s New Covenant for mankind in Christ:

For my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples. Is 56:7c See, I am creating new heavens and a new earth; The former things shall not be remembered nor come to mind. Is 65:17 All flesh shall come to worship before me, says the Lord. Is 66:23b See, days are coming when I will raise up a righteous branch of David. This is the name to be given him: “The Lord is our justice.” Jer 23:5a, 6b It is a re-birth in Christ’s love for our fellow man so that through our suffering we may acknowledge the Son, Christ Jesus, and the Father, who lives in the Son will accept our offering. Heb 5:8; Jn 16:27; Mt 10:32
