SAINT LADISLAUS CHURCH
@ HOLY FAMILY PARISH
A Sunday Reflection by István Horváth

Corpus Christi Sunday

“Jesus said, ‘I am the living bread that came down from Heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; ... Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have [eternal] life within you.’” Jn 6:51, 53

Last week we heard Jesus instructing Nicodemus on the re-birth in the Trinity through water, blood and spirit that leads to the Kingdom of God (Jn 3:5; 1Jn 5:6-8); this week we hear the physical manifestation of that action, it is The Sacred Body and Blood of Jesus, Son of God in The Holy Eucharist.

By these acts we are re-born and receive God’s total love for humanity from Easter to Pentecost and our inheritance in the one true living God of Hosts: the act of Baptism, the act of The Holy Eucharist and the act of Confirmation; the three are of one accord.

This is the Holy Mass instituted by Jesus at the Last Supper. In going to Mass, we are truly heirs to His love and likeness through our own free will. We re-affirm our baptize at the Holy Water font with Holy Water and receive the Liturgy of the Word from the ambo. We conclude our learning of His teaching with the recitation of the Credo, when we profess our faith. Having prepared our bodies to be receptive to grace by good deeds we have performed, and cleansing our souls through the sacrament of reconciliation, we become one body in Christ (1Cor12:13,27; 1Jn 5:12). Together with the spiritual offerings of the form of bread and wine, our offering and the celebrant’s are transformed by Jesus to His Body and Blood. In the Consecration of the Holy Eucharist, Jesus offers up His life for ours to the Father. In a State of Grace, we partake in the Sacrificial Banquet of the Eucharist, while the Father sends down His acceptance of our offering in the act of confirmation by His Holy Spirit. This act of Communion with the Holy Trinity is the Holy Mass, and the supernatural re-birth in faith by water, blood and spirit; a Communion in the Name of The Father, and of The Son and of The Holy Ghost. “Amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have [eternal] life within you.” Jn 6:53

It is our free will to be part of God’s love for mankind in the Holy Mass, the true presence of His Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.
