SAINT OF THE DAY

SAINT ADRIAN OF CANTERBURY

Saint Adrian was born in Africa. After entering consecrated religious life, he was selected as abbot of the monastery at Nerida, near Naples in Italy.

He was serving in that capacity when the newly appointed archbishop of Canterbury (in England), Saint Theodore, asked him to assist him in the Archdiocese. After arrival in England, St. Theodore appointed him as abbot of Saints Peter and Paul Monastery in Canterbury (The name was later changed to Saint Augustine Monastery). Under his leadership, the Monastery became an important center of learning, attracting many international scholars and teaching its students Latin and Greek.

Saint Adrian taught there for almost four decades and was buried there after he died on January 9, most likely in the year 710.

When the Monastery was undergoing reconstruction several hundred years later, Saint Adrian's body was discovered, and it was incorrupt. Subsequently, people made pilgrimages to his tomb, and a number of miracles were attributed to Saint Adrian.

“John answered them all, ‘I baptize you with water; but he who is mightier than I is coming...he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit...’” LUKE 3:16

The Catholic Catechism states that “Jesus’ immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God’s will.” In other words, as baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus—the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God.
