Coventry Food Bank

The weekly generosity of parishioners of Saints John and Paul to the Coventry Food Bank is a blessing and is appreciated greatly by the less fortunate of our community.

Prayer Fellowship

Prayer Fellowship meetings are held on the 1st and 3rd TUESDAYS of each month. The next meeting is THIS Tuesday, from 10:00-11:30AM in the Rectory Conference Room.

All are welcome to attend!

From the Pastor

Come Holy Spirit! Happy Pentecost! This Sunday, we celebrate the “Last and Greatest Day of the Feast” (cf. Jn 7:37) of Easter, Pentecost Sunday, when the Holy Spirit came down on the disciples, and the Church was born. May Jesus, through his Mother Mary, pour out the Holy Spirit on our Parish, that we may be filled with the Peace and Love of Christ, and be courageous witnesses to his Gospel in our lives!

“Feel Free to Roam in Rome (with Me) on Your Own”: Update on Patrick Ryan’s Diaconate Ordination: As I’ve mentioned, one of our parishioners who is studying for the Priesthood, Patrick Ryan, will be ordained to the Transitional Diaconate at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome, this coming September 29. I had mentioned a while back that I would be planning a parish pilgrimage to the Ordination; however, after looking into it, I’ve come to the conclusion that now isn’t a good time to be organizing such a trip. I recently heard a European Tour guide from America state that a negative Covid test is still required to get back into the United States (most other countries have dropped this requirement by the way), and that currently, 2% of travelers are testing positive, and are forced to quarantine in their hotel rooms for five more days before they can fly home. As there’s no telling what the virus will be doing in late September, it doesn’t seem practical to spend all the time and effort needed to organize an overseas trip in these circumstances. That being the case however, I am still personally planning on going on my own to support Patrick, and have already booked my trip. There are also a number of other parishioners who are also still planning on going, and they too are making their own travel and lodging arrangements. So, if anyone else is interested in going to Rome for Patrick’s Ordination, I certainly wouldn’t discourage you from looking into it (just realize that there’s a risk you might get stuck in Rome longer than you wanted to!); and if you did go, you wouldn’t be the only people there from our parish! Patrick will be home in a few weeks for his summer assignment (at my former parish of St. Joseph Woonsocket!), and when he gets home, I’ll get more info from him, and then possibly arrange an “informational meeting,” for those interested in going, regarding how to get tickets to the Ordination, where his first Mass as a deacon will be, the Holy Hour the night before, the Wednesday Audience with Pope

Francis, and other important things to know about traveling to Rome. Once again however, anyone who wishes to attend the Ordination will need to make their own travel plans and book their own lodging. More info to come!

Grateful for God’s Providence Update: Thank you to everyone who has redeemed or who continues to redeem their pledge to the 2019 Grateful for God’s Providence Campaign! The chart to the left shows those projects we’ve completed so far, highlighted in yellow; the projects in grey have yet to be started, and the project in green is currently being worked on. Last summer’s school roof project depleted almost all the funds in the account; however, we now have $52,411 built back up into it (we get quarterly in October, January, April and July a check from the diocese equal to 40% of that quarter’s redeemed pledges, about $17,000 per quarter). As seen in the chart, we are in the process of getting the irrigation well put in for the Church lawns sprinkler system project, and we will hopefully be installing the the sprinklers in the fall. While we plan on getting quotes for the Church roofs over the side pews in the coming weeks, it may be that we will have to continue to build up the account, before we can tackle that costly job. Thankfully, the Rectory roof was recently worked on by a parishioner who is a roofer, which gives that roof another four years before it will be in need of replacing. Hopefully too, the inflated price of materials will go down by the time we do some of these future projects. We can only pray!

God bless, Fr. Woolley

Table will be updated as funds become available, and projects become completed and/or added.

Summer Food Drive

Donations to the Coventry Food Bank are at the lowest level in years! Certainly, we would all prefer to be optimistic about the health and wellness of our families. During the school year many of our children have received breakfasts and lunches at reduced cost. We are concerned that this source of nourishing meals is not available during the summer months... a long time to go hungry!

The Outreach Committee is launching a Summer Food Drive, the weekend of June 25 + 26, 2022 ~ before and after all Masses. Join forces with us in a determined effort to make this food drive memorable! We are asking Y-O-U to help us stock the shelves at the Food Bank – let's make them overflow!!

Heading the list of "most wanted" items:
 tuna, cereal, juice, peanut butter, canned meat, pasta sauce, canned fruit, evaporated or powdered milk, baked beans, breakfast bars, lunch kits; for example, chicken and crackers, tuna and crackers, are prepared in a lunch "kit" by a name brand company.

... remember ... look for the
"Donation Table"

Question: Many people have asked if we would accept donations of money or food certificates, such as Walmart or Stop & Shop ~ they find it inconvenient to bring bags of food donations, or have forgotten their food donations.

Answer: Yes! We will accept cash, check, Stop & Shop or Walmart gift certificates.

Location: Inside the North Entrance after all Masses.

This past week, Fr. Doan had his Homecoming Mass at his home parish in Vietnam; a video of the Mass and other photos can be viewed on our parish Facebook Page. As you can see, they literally rolled out the Red Carpet for him! Please pray for Fr. Doan as he visits his family for the next several weeks.
