From the Pastor

Fr. Dennis Kieton, a senior priest of our diocese, moved into Fr. JD's old room at the rectory this past week; he will be helping out with the Masses and the other sacraments.

Fr. Kieton was ordained in 1985 by Bishop Gelineau, after having been previously for many years a Religious Brother. His first assignment as a priest was - guess where? - right here at Ss. John and Paul in Coventry (he was actually one of my favorite priests growing up, I'm sure a lot of you remember him being here with Fr. Doyle and Fr. Kiley in the mid to late 80s).

Fr. Kieton went on to serve as Pastor for 15 years at Our Lady of Fatima Parish in Cumberland, and also as Pastor of Holy Ghost and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parishes in Providence, and Mary Mother of Mankind Parish in North Providence as well as Chaplain of St. Antoine Nursing Home in North Smithfield.

For the past several years, Fr. Kieton has been living and helping out at Parishes in the South County area, but he was looking for a parish to come to that was closer to his family and that he could more actively help out in, and Bishop Evans recommend he speak with me about coming to John and Paul.

As I've been looking for a senior priest to move in here since Fr. JD passed away, I'm very happy to have him come and help with all the Masses, Funerals, Baptisms, sick calls and everything else we have going on here.

So please pray for Fr. Kieton as he moves in, or I should say as he moves back in, after being away for 30 years!

God bless, Fr. Woolley
