Ss. John and Paul Parishioner, Deacon Patrick Ryan, will be ordained a priest for the Diocese of Providence Saturday June 24, 2023 at the Cathedral of Ss. Peter and Paul in Providence. Patrick, as well as towards the First Mass Reception we are putting on for him afterwards in the Parish Hall, please make your donations out to Ss. John and Paul Parish, and write "Patrick Ryan Priesthood Ordination" on the memo.

Volunteers Needed Volunteer Guardianship Program

There are older adults and adults with disabilities, who reside in specific health care facilities, who are unable to make their own health care decisions and have no friends or family members who are able to assist. These vulnerable individuals rely on volunteer guardians to support their medical care.

- Good Samaritan Guardianship is a legal arrangement created by the Probate Court.
- The Volunteer guardian is authorized to make health care decisions for another person known as the ward.
- Volunteer guardians are not responsible for finances and are not caregivers.
- Volunteer guardians receive orientation, training and on-going support by Volunteer Guardianship Program Staff.
