FROM THE "FATHER ELF" PASTOR The 67th Annual Snowflake Bazaar Wrap Up!

Our Snowflake Bazaar last weekend once again lived up to its reputation of being one of the biggest and best parish bazaars in the Diocese! The Lord blessed us with beautiful, almost summer like weather both days, and steady crowds of people of all ages throughout Saturday and Sunday, including the Homecoming Parade goes Saturday morning. And this year, our Snickerdoodle cookies went viral on Facebook, with people all over our "biggest town" of Coventry commenting on social media how great our Bazaar is!

Thank you to all who volunteered, helped set up/break down, and donated, made, or baked items, as well as to all who attended the event or purchased raffle tickets. While so many people too numerous to mention went above and beyond in their generosity, we'd like to give special thanks to Ray Budziak of Budzies Nursery, who again drove 4 hours from Upstate New York to donate over a hundred pumpkins for the Children's Area, to AJ's Restaurant in West Warwick, who donated all the bacon, sausage and home fries for the breakfast, and The Harris Grill in Coventry, who donated all the meatballs for the lunch. Very special thanks to Bazaar Co-Chair Dan Paquette, and VERY VERY SPECIAL THANKS to our 2024 Snowflake Bazaar Leader, Co-Chair Jeanne DiMasi, who did an outstanding job organizing and coordinating this very big event!

Record Setting Cows Chip Bingo 2024! Our Fifth Annual Cow Chip Bingo (or our Second Annual Cows Chip Bingo, whichever way you want to look at it) was certainly a fast paced, action packed event, at least as far as Cow Chip Bingos go! Caitlyn the Cow, who held the trophy from last year's Cows Chip showdown, and Allie the Cow, arrived at the parish a half an hour early, and both entered the Bingo Board at 12:40pm, after being cooped up indoors all morning. After prancing around the board and butting heads with each other for a half an hour or so, and trying trying to escape several times (one of them did get out very briefly, but didn't make it to the school entrance like the first year), they finally settled down to some peaceful grazing, and one of them even laid down for a while (not sure if that means a 50% chance of rain!). While Caitlyn tried to hold on to her trophy, Allie was determined to be the first to go, and at around 145pm, after being on the board for only an hour (a record for shortest time ever at SSJP CCBI), Allie left her calling card on winning square number 194, which was purchased by parishioner John Pizzo, who this year wins the $1000 prize! We'll see if Caitlyn can make a cow chip comeback in 2025!

God Bless, Fr. Elf (Woolley)
