STATIONS OF THE CROSS FRIDAY EVES AT 6:30PM

Make a spiritual pilgrimage this Lent through contemplation of the Passion of Christ in the Stations of the Cross. The Stations will be led at 6:30pm by Fr. Bob and Fr. Hyacinth on:

- March 19th at St. Francis of Assisi in Belfast
- March 26th at St. Bernard in Rockland

The other Fridays through March 26th will be led by various groups within each Church as in years past. Most will be livestreamed at our Facebook page and then uploaded to our YouTube channel (see links above).

“FRATELLI TUTTI” ONLINE PROGRAM

This Lenten season, reflect on a way of life inspired by St. Francis of Assisi. In Pope Francis’s encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, the Holy Father invites us to respond to God’s call with a new vision of fraternity and social friendship. Please join Catholic Charities Maine Parish Social Ministry as they present an online, four-week look at the encyclical. The sessions will be on Wednesday nights during March from 7:00-8:00pm. They will feature lively presentations by priests, sisters, deacons, and others with plenty of time for questions and discussion. To participate, email psm@ccmaine.org and you will receive a link to the online presentations.

The Light Is On For You!

Options for Attending Mass at This Time (March 14, 2021)

Please remember Bishop Robert Deeley’s dispensation from Sunday Mass is still in effect. Below are options for attending Mass—in person or live-streamed. See the front page of the bulletin for both the weekend and weekday schedule.

Regular Mass Schedule with 50 People in Church.

(Stay tuned for updated guidance beginning March 26th)

The latest guidelines allow for up to 50 people in our churches, 50 people in cordoned-off halls, depending on space needed for distancing. The same safety guidelines are still in place: please wear facemasks and keep 6 feet apart. If you’re not feeling well, please stay home for your well being and others. Names/contact information of attendees are needed before each Mass in case someone comes down with the virus, so please leave extra time for that when coming to Mass.

2. Live Stream: See the “LS” notation on the Mass Intention schedule (p. 3) for the Live Stream Mass schedule. Masses will appear live-streamed on our Facebook page at: https://www.facebook.com/stbrendanparishmaine

Masses will be uploaded to our YouTube channel as well: https://www.youtube.com/c/StBrendantheNavigatorParishofMaine

• Online Mass guide for streaming Masses: https://mass-online.org/daily-holy-mass-live-online

• TV: EWTN, Channel 27: at 8am, 12pm, 7pm

Audio Tip: Hard to hear live-stream Masses? Try using external speakers with your device—makes a huge difference!

Face Coverings:
The latest Executive Order signed by Governor Janet Mills states all owners and operators of all indoor public spaces must not allow those who refuse to wear a face covering to enter or remain in their venue. We continue to be blessed to be able to gather for Mass to celebrate God’s Word and share in the Holy Eucharist as a parish family, but be reminded that proper and effective face covering must be worn during Mass and must be properly worn, covering the entire nose and mouth, through the entirety of the Mass. This is for all parishioners who are attending our Masses. You may adjust your face mask when receiving Communion: After you receive the Host you may step aside, remove your mask to place the Host in your mouth, then place your face mask back on and return to your pew. The wearing of face masks properly and for the duration of Mass is essential for the protection and safety of all churchgoers, and is an act of Christian charity. Wearing a face mask at this time is a sacrifice we can ask Our Lord for the strength to bear—and He will help us! We thank you for helping to keep all of us safe by doing so.

Communion Offered to Those in Cars After Mass

Our priests will offer Holy Communion to people in their cars after all Masses. Please park close to the church, have car lights on and keep an eye out for parishioners helping the priest locate those who would like to receive. (A plus would be viewing a livestream Mass on a phone or device in the car before receiving.) Please wear a face mask.

In addition to the schedule on the front of the bulletin, for the Sacrament of Confession you can make an appointment with Father Bob or Father Hyacinth. You may also ask to receive Communion at that time. Their contact information is: Fr. Hyacinth: 930-9869 or Fr. Bob at 551-7974

OLGH Bible Study

Would you like to join in our current Bible study? Every week you will receive a pre-recorded message and handout. Our current study is The Gospel of John and the Early Church. If you would like to join please contact Mary Smyth, mlstocme@gmail.com to be put on the list for a weekly link or check us out at this link: https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCWBZb5JjCipL4U46qIQCHug

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

The Sanctuary Lamp at St. Francis is being lit this week for Juanita Marquez.

by Hector & Kathy Pietra-Santa
Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard this. "Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature, because I have rejected him. Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart." In the same way Jesse presented seven sons before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen any one of these." Then Samuel asked Jesse, "Are these all the sons you have?" Jesse replied, "There is still the youngest, who is tending the sheep." Samuel said to Jesse, "Send him; we will not begin the sacrificial banquet until he arrives here." Jesse sent and had the young man brought to them. He was ruddy, a youth handsome to behold and making a splendid appearance. The LORD said, "There—anoint him, for this is the one!" Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 23: 1-3A, 3B-4, 5, 6
The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.
R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
He guides me in right paths for his name’s sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side
With your rod and your staff that give me courage.
R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.
R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

GOSPEL ACCL: Cf. Jn 8:12
R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.
I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life.
R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

GOSPEL: Jn 9:1-41
As Jesus passed by he saw a man blind from birth. His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him. We have to do the works of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam"—which means Sent—. So he went and washed, and came back able to see.

His neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar said, "Isn't this the one who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is, " but others said, "No, he just looks like him." He said, "I am." So they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?" He replied, "The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and told me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So I went there and washed and was able to see." And they said to him, "Where is he?" He said, "I don't know."

They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees. Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath. So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see." So some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath." But others said, "How can a sinful man do such signs?" And there was a division among them. So they said to the blind man again, "What do you have to say about him, since he opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

Now the Jews did not believe that he had been blind and gained his sight until they summoned the parents of the one who had gained his sight. They asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How does he now see?" His parents answered and said, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. We do not know how he sees now, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him, he is of age; he can speak for himself." His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone acknowledged him as the Christ, he would be expelled from the synagogue. For this reason his parents said, "He is of age; question him."

So a second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give God the praise! We know that this man is a sinner." He replied, "If he is a sinner, I do not know. One thing I do know is that I was blind and now I see." So they said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" He answered them, "I told you already and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?" They ridiculed him and said, "You are that man's disciple; we are disciples of Moses! We know that God spoke to Moses, but we do not know where this one is from." The man answered and said to them, "This is what is so amazing, that you do not know where he is from, yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if one is devout and does his will, he listens to him. It is unheard of that anyone ever opened the eyes of a person born blind. This man was not from God, he would not be able to do anything." They answered and said to him, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" Then they threw him out.

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, 'Do you believe in the Son of Man?" He answered and said, "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, the one speaking with you is he." He said, "I do believe, Lord," and he worshiped him. Then Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind."

Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not also blind, are we?" Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you are saying, 'We see,' so your sin remains.

READING 1: 1 SM 16:1B, 6-7, 10-13A
The LORD said to Samuel: "Fill your horn with oil, and be on your way. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have chosen my king from among his sons."

As Jesse and his sons came to the sacrifice, Samuel looked at Eliab and thought, "Surely the LORD’s anointed is here before him." But the LORD said to Samuel: "Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature, because I have rejected him. Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart." In the same way Jesse presented seven sons before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen any one of these." Then Samuel asked Jesse, "Are these all the sons you have?" Jesse replied, "There is still the youngest, who is tending the sheep." Samuel said to Jesse, "Send him; we will not begin the sacrificial banquet until he arrives here." Jesse sent and had the young man brought to them. He was ruddy, a youth handsome to behold and making a splendid appearance. The LORD said, "There—anoint him, for this is the one!" Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David.

READING 2: EPH 5:8-14
Brothers and sisters: You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says: "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."

More Lenten Activities…

DISCOVER JESUS IN UNEXPECTED PLACES!

This Lent, The Journey Begins! Discover Jesus in unexpected places this Lent. “The Journey Begins” is a book of Lenten reflections written by and for members of the Maine prison ministry and those currently incarcerated in our jails and prisons. These prayerful reflections will touch your heart in their universal themes of suffering, loss, hope and forgiveness. This Lenten season find God’s healing love in “The Journey Begins”. You can receive these reflections daily in your email inbox by sending your email address to: psm@ccmaine.org (your email address will not be used for any other purpose). FMI 956-1457.

THE LITTLE BLACK BOOK

The Little Black Books for Lent are in the Churches! Let these six-minute meditations on the Sunday Gospels of Lent guide you this Lenten season—pick up and read!

CRS RICE BOWLS

Pick up your family’s CRS Rice Bowl from our churches and enter a life-changing Lenten journey to help put nutritious food on the tables of those in need! Set up your Rice Bowl at home in an easy-to-see place to remind you about Lenten almsgiving and help those who are hungry. Throughout the 40 days of Lent, fill your bowl with coins and change that you sometimes think cannot buy very much—but working with others who are also saving, it can transform lives. At the end of Lent—Easter!—please submit your Lenten almsgiving by check (for covid-safety reasons) made payable to St. Brendan the Navigator Parish with “Rice Bowl” in the memo line or you can also donate via WeShare at https://stbrendanparish.weshareonline.org/.

DAUGHTERS OF ST. BERNARD SCHOLARSHIP

The Daughters of St. Bernard will offer one $1,000.00 scholarship to a graduating high school senior at Oceanside, Medomak High Schools, or is home-schooled. Further information is available by calling Jessie Luttrell a (207) 594-8285.

THAT MAN IS YOU!

That Man Is You! is up and running again! We meet on Saturdays at 8am at Our Lady of Good Hope in Camden. (No food or drink is allowed to be distributed but you may bring your own.) That Man is You! is an interactive men’s program focused on the development of men in the modern world. It combines the best scientific research with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of authentic men capable of transforming themselves, their families and greater society. New members are welcome! To find out more, contact Joe Cammelleri at 975-4634 or email jccam@tidewater.net.

FAITH FORMATION CLASSES

Faith Formation classes at Sacred Heart Center at St. Bernard’s Church in Rockland will meet Sunday, March 21st at 9:30am. All children from any of our programs who are in Year 1, are welcome to join us on Sunday. We have plenty of room for safe distance and everyone wears masks. We meet from 9:30 to 10:45.
