Dear Parish family,

I wish you and your families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Holy New Year! We all can say that this year has certainly come and gone very fast. As we enter the Christmas season, we celebrate Jesus' Birthday, and my prayer is that the infant king Bless you and your family abundantly.

As I reflect over the past year, we have had opportunities to come together finally as a new parish, beginning with the Oktoberfest, St. Emery feast, Cookie walk, and soon the Taste of Christmas. Stay tuned for more events coming for 2022 both Spiritual and Social.

Starting next year, we will have hymnals and hand missals again. However instead of using the disposable ones we decided to use permanent ones. The hymnal is called St. Michael and the Missal is the St. Isaac Jogues. I am asking for your help to defray the cost by Memorializing them for $30 dollars each. A memorial label will be placed in each book that is purchased and once a year a Mass will be offered for those loved ones whose names are on the label. Greater details will follow in the new year.

On a final note, thank you for your prayers, ongoing support, and your love! We are in this together and as we continue to grow closer together, may the Holy Family and St. Emery Pray For us!

*Peace and Prayers
Fr. Sean*
