PARISH & DIOCESE

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS

As we gather as a nation to render thanks to the Lord for His gracious bounty bestowed, let us also gather as a community of believers to offer the Lord His sacrifice of Praise. Our annual Thanksgiving Day Mass will be celebrated at 9 AM at St. Anthony.

Visit www.catholicnh.org//koc-respectlife for more information.

DIOCESAN ARCHIVES SEEK CONTRIBUTIONS

The Diocesan Archives wants your help! We have thousands of documents and photos pertaining to the history of the Diocese of Manchester - concerning our Bishops, Priests, Parishes, Schools, and people. We have documents going back to the nineteenth century; however, the concern today is that we are not always capturing current information that will be historical data in 10, 20, or 100 years from now.

If your parish, priest, or organization is doing something memorable, please provide the archives with documents or photos of the event. Examples of recent events that have been saved include the installation of new sanctuary furniture at St. Mark the Evangelist Church, as well as the installation of a statue of our Blessed Mother in the Holy Cross Cemetery in memory of members of local Knights of Columbus Councils. For more information, please contact Dennis Pedley at dpedley@rcbm.org or 663-0190.

From the Pastor's Desk

In these final two weeks of the Liturgical Year, the Church always directs our focus on the four last things; heaven, hell, death and judgement. It is our belief that upon death we go before the Lord and face immediate judgement for what we did in this life, and failed to do. Thus, it is always important to live each day prepared to meet our Redeemer face to face. The regular practice of weekly Mass attendance, frequent Sacramental Confession, and taking time to converse with God each day (prayer) are how we prepare and stay ready for the hour we do not expect. Like anything in life, when we do not prepare we become anxious and worried about the event.

This week each of the Masses are offered for our All Souls intentions. It is mid-month and a good time to remind ourselves of November dedicated to praying for the souls of all the faithful departed. The Good News is that even if death catches us by surprise or not as prepared as we would have liked, the Lord in death can still bestow His Mercy upon the holy souls. Our prayers for the eternal rest are most powerfully thru the Blood of Christ. The Mass offers the Saviour's Blood to wash away the sins of the faithful departed and thus complete the process of their purification so that they may see the Lord face to face.

This week I offer you an invitation and a challenge. The invitation (as always) is to join us for a Daily Mass! Come and pray for the holy souls and together with the Holy Church commend them to God's mercy. The challenge: when was the last time you came to a Daily Mass at St. Antthony or St. Joseph? Did you know that one of the justifications for a full-time, resident pastor is the need for Daily Mass? One of the ways you each can contribute to the future of the parish is by incorporating a daily Mass into your weekly schedule. It benefits your soul, it helps the souls of the departed, and it is a visible sign that the parish needs a resident priest!
