3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

▼ SERVICE ▼

ARE YOU BEING CALLED TO SERVE?

The second reading last weekend was:

“Brothers and sisters:

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” 1 Corinthians 12:4-7

Please reflect on this passage and ask yourself: Is this Scripture inspiring me to come forward to use my God-given talents in the service of my parish?

Needed at Mass:

- Greeters — Say hello as parishioners arrive and to pass out the bulletin at the end of Mass.
- Counters — Greet parishioners and tally count of parishioners who attend Mass (a counter is provided). Attendance numbers are used to determine trends and set up for Mass appropriately. The numbers are also provided to the diocese twice a year.
- Altar Servers — Assist the presider at the altar. Attention youth—you get to ring the bells! Training provided.
- Offertory Collection Leader — Find eight people to take up the collection, a family/or three individuals to bring up the gifts, and put the collection away.
- Lectors — Proclaim the first and second readings during Mass.
- Sacristans — Set up and clean up at Mass. Training provided.
- Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion — Assist with the distribution of the Eucharist. Training provided.
- Live Streaming Assistant — oversee the live streaming of the 5:00 p.m. Mass at St. Maximilian Kolbe Church. Training provided.

Needed outside of Mass:

- Adult Faith Formation Leaders — Facilitate small group gatherings (for example, Sunday Scriptures, book studies, or spiritual programs).
- Baptism Team Member — Lead a baptism class. Serve in teams of two with training provided.
- Parish Life Committee — Plan social events for the parish.
- Welcome Committee — Be part of a team who welcomes all new registered parishioners.
- Environment Committee — Create a sacred environment at St. Bartholomew and St. Maximilian Kole Churches. Provide decorating for the various liturgical seasons.
- Social Justice & Peace Committee — Serve those in need through education and/or action.
- Mission Team — Assist in planning and implement a Mission or Day of Reflection.
- Garden of Eatn — Starting up again this spring, buy a plot, grow vegetables, and donate half of your yield to the South Portland Food Cupboard.
- Office Volunteers — Provide help with mailings, filing, and special projects.
- Facilities Volunteers — Assist the facilities staff with special projects, painting, or other handy-man tasks.

There are many different opportunities to serve. Prayerfully consider where God is calling you. Your help would be greatly appreciated. For more information, contact Kris Benson (883-0334 x227, kris.benson@portlanddiocese.org)

Blessing of Throats

February 3

February 3 is the Feast Day of St. Blaise, a bishop and martyr of the fourth century, who is popularly known as the saint who protects us from ailments of the throat. Blessing of throats will take place on that day, at the 8:00 a.m. Mass at St. Maximilian Kolbe Church. The following prayer will be used:

“Through the intercession of St. Blasé, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from diseases of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.”

All intentions are confidential and no request is too small. To place a prayer request, contact Gail Atkins (799-8243, gatkins1189@gmail.com).

The Presentation of the Lord
February 2

The Presentation of the Lord occurs forty days after Jesus’ birth, when Mary and Joseph present him in the temple. The Presentation is a proclamation of Christ—Messiah and Priest, Lord and Savior. He is the light who came into this world to dispel sin and darkness. Tradition since the seventh century, candles to be used throughout the year are blessed at Mass on this day, hence coining the term “Candlemas”.

Candles will be blessed at the 8:00 a.m. Mass at St. Maximilian Kolbe Church on February 2. Parishioners are encouraged to bring their candles to that Mass for blessing.

Mass for the Anointing of the Sick

February 12

Adult Faith Formation

Who Was Augustine? What Did He Confess?

A Presentation by Dr. John Kenney
February 15 — 7:00 p.m.
St. Maximilian Kolbe Church

Dr. John Kenney and his wife, Ann, have been involved in Catholic education for many years. Most recently, John taught religion and humanities at St. Michael's College and was the Dean of the College for a decade. John is part of a larger movement among Catholic scholars who have sought to return to the ancient sources of our faith and to discover anew their answers to the perennial questions of human life, including our knowledge of God, the problem of evil, and the immortality of the human soul.

Dr. Kenney has graciously offered his time to lead a discussion on St. Augustine and his contribution to the faith. Join us for this one-night event. If you love what you hear and want to continue learning about St. Augustine, you can join Dr. Kenney's five-week reading group which will start on March 1 (7:00 p.m., St. Maximilian Kolbe Church).

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful—truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God—giving it true spirit and life.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Daily Mass and Snow Days

When there is a snow storm which causes South Portland to cancel school for the day and when a daily/weekday Mass is scheduled for that day at Holy Cross Church, the scheduled morning Mass will automatically be cancelled. By making this “rule”, we avoid the difficulty of trying to notify daily Mass goers at Holy Cross in the event of a storm when the priest may be unable to get there. Daily Masses are never cancelled at St. Maximilian Kolbe or St. Bartholomew Churches since a priest lives at those rectories and can always get to Mass. Please use caution when deciding to attend Mass in inclement weather.

Parish Office and Snow Days

When there is a snow storm which causes Cape Elizabeth, South Portland, or Scarborough schools to close, the parish office will also be closed.

TAX TIME

PARISH DONATIONS & CHARITABLE DEDUCTIONS

Only donations received through offertory envelopes or through WeShare (our on-line system) are recorded to your account in our parish database. We are happy to provide you with a donation record if requested. Contact Susie DeGrinney (susie.degrinney@portlanddiocese.org, 883-0334 x261) and provide her with the following: name, church, envelope number, address, email, and telephone number. Due to the large number of requests received, we ask that you please be patient. We do our very best to respond as quickly as possible.

Tax law requires that we acknowledge receipt of any single donation of $250.00 or more with a letter, which is our standard procedure. However, smaller amounts donated by check to the collection basket that are not in offertory envelopes are not recorded, but directly deposited to the bank. You must then rely on your cancelled check and bank statements as record for your donation.

If you would like to receive offertory envelopes, contact the parish office (883-0334 x221). Thank you all in advance for your cooperation and generosity throughout the year!

Thank you to all who made donations to the Remembrance Fund in memory of

Pat Guibord

A total of $5,600.00 has been donated in her name to the St. Maximilian Kolbe Parish Organ Fund.

Generous hearts such as yours help us further our mission to serve others and grow as Catholic disciples of Christ.
