Bishop Deeley is asking the people of Maine to participate in this exercise of listening and discernment by answering questions in the brief, anonymous survey. This survey will be open through Monday, April 18. All the responses submitted will be collated and prayerfully analyzed to identify themes about how the Holy Spirit is prompting the Church to live in communion, achieve participation, and open Herself to mission. STATIONS of the CROSS

The fourteen Stations of the Cross adorn the walls of almost every Catholic church and chapel. Many parishes commemorate the Fridays of Lent with a prayerful remembrance of the Passion of Christ by walking the stations with him. Throughout our history, Christians have longed to literally walk in the footsteps of Christ. The shrines of the holy places in and around Jerusalem have drawn pilgrims inspired by the life and death of their master.

However, not everyone is able to travel to the Holy Land. Ever since the Middle Ages, churches and chapels began erecting images devoted to an aspect of the passion. By the 15th century, the Franciscans had developed a devotion they called "stations." The word means a place where people stand still or gather. Even though it implies something "stationary," the service obviously must include the movement of pilgrims following the footsteps of Christ. It took a while to fix the number and the names of the stations, but in 1731, Pope Clement XII established the fourteen we know today. We still find some variations on the number. Many places add a fifteenth station, for example, the Resurrection of Jesus. Discontent with leaving Christ in the tomb when our faith expresses so much more, worshippers have found consolation in completing the story of the cross.

The traditional stations are:

- Station 1: Jesus is condemned to death;
- Station 2: Jesus carries His cross;
- Station 3: Jesus falls the first time;
- Station 4: Jesus meets His mother;
- Station 5: Simon of Cyrene helps Jesus to carry His cross;
- Station 6: Veronica wipes the face of Jesus;
- Station 7: Jesus falls the second time;
- Station 8: Jesus meets the women of Jerusalem;
- Station 9: Jesus falls a third time;
- Station 10: Jesus is stripped;
- Station 11: Jesus is nailed to the cross;
- Station 12: Jesus dies on the cross;
- Station 13: Jesus is taken down from the cross; and
- Station 14: Jesus is laid in the tomb.

The stations inspire us all to follow Christ through suffering to peace.

FOOT WASHING

F. J. Moloney ("A Sacramental Reading of John 13:1-38," Catholic Biblical Quarterly 53 [1991], pp. 242-48) points out that "to 'have part with Jesus' through washing of the feet means to be part of the act of self-giving love which Jesus revealed in his death." (Moloney, p. 245) This ritual is a focal point of the Holy Thursday Liturgy. We will be washing feet only at the Holy Cross Mass at 6:00 p.m. on Holy Thursday. We are looking for twelve individuals of all ages from all three of our churches to have their feet washed.
