Tenebrae Service

The service of Tenebrae or “darkness” grew out of a combination of Night Prayer and early Morning Prayer. Tenebrae is a series of Scripture readings commemorating Jesus’ final week, ending with his burial. At the end of each reading a candle is snuffed out, until the final candle, the Christ candle, is carried out, leaving the room in darkness. A powerful experience of Christ’s passion and death. A nice way to prepare for the Sacred Triduum.

Holy Saturday—Vigil of the Lord’s Resurrection

Our mourning and silence on Good Friday and Holy Saturday are followed by the joy-filled return of the bells during the Gloria of the Easter Vigil Mass. The “Alleluia” is joyfully sung. This year we welcome Shelley Assia, Sam Assia, Ethan Assia, Audrey Assia, Paula Hernandez, Melanie Krum and Joel Lueso into the Catholic Church through the waters of Baptism.

Easter Triduum

THE EASTER TRIDUUM

Picture yourself in the upper room with Jesus and his disciples on that first Holy Thursday. For the next three days you will share the Passover meal, make the torturous journey to Calvary and be with Jesus on Easter Sunday, witnessing His triumph over death. Holy Thursday through Easter Sunday, the summit of the Church’s liturgical year, is called the Triduum. It is our time to remember Jesus’ suffering, death and resurrection, His supreme sacrifice, His gift to us of eternal life.

Holy Thursday—Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper

At the Mass of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday evening, we commemorate Christ’s washing of the disciples’ feet with the instruction, “I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do” (John 13:15). At that same time, Jesus instituted the Eucharist, giving his body and blood to his disciples: “This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me” (Luke 22:19). Washing of the feet will only happen at Holy Cross Church this year.

Easter Sunday

On Easter Sunday, we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead. On this day, the disciples saw the empty tomb, and the Risen Christ began to appear to them. Easter celebrates our belief in life after death. It ranks first among the feasts of the church. The Easter Sunday Mass differs a bit from others. The new Paschal candle is lighted and stands near the ambo. Having omitted the Glory to God throughout the season of Lent, we sing it again. The Easter sequence is said or sung after the Second Reading. During Lent, we sang a different acclamation before the Gospel, but now we again sing “Alleluia.” In the United States, the Creed may be replaced with the Renewal of Baptismal Promises and the sprinkling of Holy Water on this day. There are small changes to the Eucharistic Prayer. If you are alert, you will hear during the Preface that Christ became our paschal sacrifice “on this day.” If the priest is using Eucharistic Prayer I, he announces that this is the day of the Resurrection of the Lord and that the community prays especially for those newly baptized at the Easter Vigil.

At the end of the Mass, the deacon or priest adds two “Alleluias” to the words of dismissal, and you respond, “Thanks be to God, Alleluia, Alleluia.” Attendance is strong on Easter, as all those who profess faith in Christ join together in a single celebration. Many worshipers like to dress up for the occasion. The main Easter liturgy is the Easter Vigil on Saturday night, and all Catholics should make every effort to participate in it. But Easter Sunday remains a popular choice for affirming one’s faith in the Risen Christ.

Good Friday—Celebration of the Lord’s Passion

On Good Friday, we gather to read from Scripture and to pray in intercession for the whole world. Veneration of the Cross is a common custom at this time and is usually done with a simple touch or a kiss.

▼ PRAYER SERVICE ▼

Divine Mercy Sunday

The Second Sunday of Easter is also called "Divine Mercy Sunday." When Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina in the Jubilee Year of 2000, he added the title to this day. In visions, Faustina heard Jesus request that the image of Divine Mercy be venerated on the Sunday after Easter, a day St. John Paul II lovingly chose for Faustina's canonization. Many communities display the image of Divine Mercy on this day. Jesus' penetrating, compassionate gaze reaches out to the viewer. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbols of blood and water—Eucharist and Baptism. Many Catholics confess their sins or pray before the Blessed Sacrament in conjunction with this feast.

A priest may use the prayers from the Votive Mass for Divine Mercy on any day when a stronger feast does not conflict. The Second Sunday of Easter has its own prayers and readings, so the Votive Mass for Divine Mercy is never permitted on that day. Instead, we observe the much older tradition of the octave day of Easter. The Gospel story of the doubting Thomas is heard every year on this day because Jesus appeared to him a week after the Resurrection. The other texts for this Mass refer to the season and to Baptism. This day used to be called Dominica in albis, the Sunday of white garments, because those baptized at the Easter Vigil wore their new vesture to conclude a week of catechesis about the sacraments. Today the only change to this liturgy is its title: the Second Sunday of Easter, or Divine Mercy Sunday. The mercy of God may be proclaimed in the homily or the Universal Prayer, but especially in the actions of believers, who extend God's mercy to all they meet.

Holy Cross Alumni & Families

Calling all Holy Cross alums or those interested in learning what makes HCS so special! You are invited to join us for coffee and donuts after the 10:00 a.m. Mass at Holy Cross Church on April 10. This will provide a terrific opportunity to connect with some of our school families and students to hear about all of the amazing things happening this year!

Holy Cross School Celebrates the Virtue of Gratitude

This past week our school community celebrated the virtue of gratitude. We reflected on the wise words of a holy priest who believed that only one kind of person transforms the world: the one with the grateful heart. We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the St. John Paul II Parish community for your generous support throughout the year and most especially during our Love our Library campaign and Online Spring Auction.

We thank you for your support and the opportunity to share in the legacy that is Holy Cross!

The academic experience at Holy Cross School is rooted in the tradition of our parish and guided by the school's core values of Faith, Service and Knowledge. Each day the faculty and students celebrate the mission that Holy Cross School is a Christ-centered school focused on academic excellence, while nurturing the whole student in faith, empathy, community and social responsibility. Holy Cross School is thriving. Enrollment is at levels not seen in years. It is clear the faith-based education provided by our teachers is a precious resource that serves our current community and future community well.

Together we can ensure that the mission of our school continues to succeed.

HOLY CROSS MISSION STATEMENT

Holy Cross School is a Christ-centered Catholic school focused on academic excellence, while nurturing the whole student in faith, empathy, community and social responsibility.

Registration for new students is still open!

Our School serves students from Pre-K through 8th grade.
