BY HIS WOUNDS
WE ARE

CELEBRATE THE SAVIOR

He is RISEN

Life is Changed! It is easy to get bogged down in a survival mindset; that is scraping through life to get by. In the great event of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ we have the chance to think and live differently, because Jesus has transformed us to live with Him now.

St. John Paul II proclaimed on Easter in 2004: "Resurrexit! Today You, O Redeemer of mankind, rise victoriously from the tomb to offer to us, troubled by many threatening shadows, Your wish for joy and peace. Those who are tempted by anxiety and desperation turn to You, O Christ, our life and our guide, to hear the proclamation of the hope that does not disappoint."

On Easter, the Risen Lord invites us to participate in His very life and to take on a Resurrection mindset. What is this mindset? It is living knowing that sin and death do not have the final say, that we can have a new life in Christ that brings joy.

The Church invites each of us to live this beautiful Easter season well. When we allow ourselves to be encountered and transformed by the Risen Lord, then everything changes. With the mindset of the Easter, we know that all things are possible in Christ, who strengthens us and encourages us. May the joy and the hope of the Risen Lord transform our minds, our hearts, and our parish this Easter!

Happy Easter!

Fr. Jack Decker

Congratulations & Welcome to the Church

With joy and gratitude, St. John Paul II Parish extends a warm welcome to Nicholas Babaya, Samantha Dorrington, Amber Helstrom, Michael Jefferds, Colin O'Connor, Vanessa O'Connor, and Garrett Thompson who received the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil Mass.

Parishioners Abigail Dorrington and Colin Connelly will receive the sacrament of Confirmation with Bishop Ruggieri on April 25 at Holy Martyrs Church in Falmouth. Please keep them in your prayers as they continue to prepare.

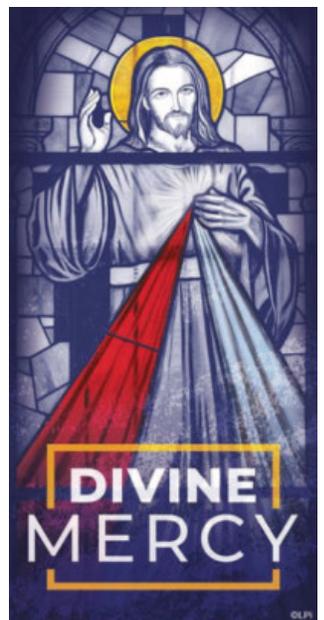

If you are interested in becoming Catholic or would like to complete your sacraments of initiation, contact Michelle Valcourt at the parish office for more information.

Divine Mercy Sunday

In the year 2000, St. Faustina was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come."

Prepare for Marian Consecration

Join us in a journey of deepening your relationship with Jesus through Mary as we begin 33 Days to Morning Glory, a do-it-yourself retreat in preparation for Marian Consecration.

We will meet weekly beginning Monday, April 28, from 6:00–7:30 PM at St. Maximilian Kolbe with the consecration on May 31 after the 5:00 PM Mass.

Guided by the writings of St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and St. John Paul II, this retreat offers an inspiring and accessible path to entrust yourself more fully to Mary, the Mother of God.

Whether you're new to Marian devotion or looking to renew your consecration, all are welcome.

Come grow in grace with us.

Practical Catholicism: Explore the documents of Vatican II

with Fr. Jack Dickinson and Michelle Valcourt

Monday, April 28 at 7 PM
St. Maximilian Kolbe

We will focus on the documents of Vatican II—what they are, why they matter, and how they continue to shape our faith and daily lives.

All are welcome to deepen their understanding of the Church's teachings in a practical, approachable way.

Mark your calendar and bring a friend!

Mary's Garden Spring Workday

Join us on Saturday, May 3 from 8:30 a.m. – noon at St. Maximilian Kolbe to help make Mary's Garden and the front entrance of the church ready for summer! We will gather in Room #6, and coffee & donuts will be served. We had a great group of parishioners working in the gardens last year and hope to include more parishioners this year. You are welcome to come late or leave early as your schedule allows. Please call the parish office with any questions.

Holy Cross School

Why did you choose Holy Cross for your child?

COMMENT BELOW

From parent Kristin B:

When my husband and I toured Holy Cross School, we were impressed by how confident and happy the students are. We wanted that kind of experience for our kids. Small class sizes, strong academics, and faith are important to us. And as working parents, the onsite before and aftercare program is invaluable!! We love that it's affordable, convenient, and the hours are perfect for our needs.

FAITH FORMATION UPDATE

Are You Searching for Something More?

Have you ever wondered if there is more to life? Have you felt a longing for truth, purpose, or a deeper understanding of God's love for you? The Catholic Church invites you to explore these questions in an open and welcoming environment.

Inquiry sessions are a place to ask questions, seek truth, and discover the beauty of the Catholic faith—no pressure, just conversation. Whether you're simply curious or seriously considering becoming Catholic, you are welcome here.

Come and see. You might just find what your heart has been searching for all along.

For more information, contact Michelle Valcourt or visit <https://jp2me.org/becoming-catholic>.

Ed McGarrity and Michelle Valcourt will be holding an inquiry night on May 13 at 6:30 PM at St. Maximilian Kolbe.

This is open to anyone. Feel free to bring a friend.

Children and Families

Our parish offers faith-filled programs for children and families. We host Monthly Family Formation Sessions, where families grow together in hands-on, engaging learning. Kindergarten and Tween drop-off programs meet twice a month with interactive activities, games, and stories rooted in Scripture and prayer. Children's Sacramental Preparation is a two-year journey of faith including retreats and family sessions. Plus, our summer Vacation Bible School brings Scripture to life through fun, faith-filled experiences for children of all ages.

Teens and Young Adults

Our parish offers opportunities for teens and young adults to grow in faith and community. Sunday evenings feature separate Youth Ministry sessions for Middle and High School students, with games, teachings, and prayer that help teens encounter God and one another. Our Faith and Science program lets middle schoolers explore faith through hands-on experiments. Young adults (ages 18–35) gather regularly for Adoration and dinner, with additional opportunities to connect, grow spiritually, and share their faith journey.

Adult Offerings

Our adult faith formation offers something for everyone seeking to grow in understanding and discipleship. Small faith-sharing groups provide community and spiritual support. Our Christian Classics seminars with Dr. John Kenney explore timeless writings from saints like Augustine and Aquinas, helping us connect deep theology to daily life. In our Practical Catholicism series, Fr. Jack and Michelle Valcourt unpack the foundations of our faith and give us the language to share what we believe with confidence and clarity.
