FR. JOSH'S JOURNAL

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The past few weeks have been quite a roller coaster ride for the Catholic Church! We had the glorious celebration of Christ's resurrection on Easter Sunday. We witnessed Pope Francis giving his Easter Sunday blessing from the balcony at St. Peter's Basilica, then to the shock of almost everyone, he rode around St. Peter's Square imparting his blessing upon the faithful gathered there. In less than 24 hours, the world was then informed of the passing of the Holy Father on the morning of Easter Monday.

Fast-forward a few weeks later, and in an incredibly quick conclave, a new pope was elected. Not only was this news alone enough to make headlines, but come to find out it was an American elected; now known as Pope Leo XIV! Last weekend at all Masses we offered our prayers for the intentions of Pope Leo. May he guide the Church well, and always find his support through the Holy Spirit.

Amid the fast pace of the events of the last several weeks, one thing remains constant: Jesus Christ established his Church. As our Lord said in Matthew 16:18, "And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it." I can't help but feel a renewal of hope these past few weeks for the faith. As much as the Church has not exactly been perfect in its mission over the centuries, the core tenets of our faith remain, and that's what matters. The message of Jesus and the Gospels carries on, even through the very imperfect humans he chooses to carry on that mission.

Each and every one of us is called to carry on that mission in some way. A question we might ask of ourselves regularly is, "how am I sharing the good news of the Gospel this day?" It doesn't need to be in super-human ways, but it should simply be part of our everyday life.

May God continue to bless all of us, His Church, and our missionary roles as people of the Christian faith.

Peace and joy,

Fr. Josh

HomeFront Day 2025

On Saturday, May 3rd our St. Thomas HomeFront Team made a huge difference in the lives of Paula and her daughters!

On that day, our team completed many tasks. We replaced the cellar door and fixed the garage roof, both of which were the top priorities of the homeowner. Inside we fixed the sluggish plumbing and replaced the toilet; and we fixed the electrical issue with the ceiling fan/light. We cleared debris from the yard, removed years of moss from the outdoor steps, and mowed the lawn – giving the outdoor landscape a lift.

Prior to the afternoon rain, the team made a lot of progress with removing shingles and replacing siding and did an extensive amount of scraping and painting, but we were unable to finish those tasks on the 3rd. That work is ongoing.

And, a big thank you to the Ladies Guild who provided many snacks and drinks. And thank you to team members, Carol and Jerry Salvatore, who made lunch possible. A giant thank you to team members: Fernando and Julie Videira, Jim DeSabia, Matt DiGiovanna, Tony Arrato, Rich DeFrank, Susan and Brooklynne DeRosa, Lynn Kostka, David Manning, Steve Schneider, Shauna Davis, Brenda Pachucki, Bob Sylvester, Jamie, Leah, and Sean Durkin, Mark Anderson, Marlene Golembeski, Madden Criscuolo, Jeff Giovacchino, Jon Toigo, Tammy Horn, Joe LaCava, Josie Hamer, Marcia Franko (Volunteer Coordinator), Gee Gramlich (Assistant House Captain) and Nick Mastriano (House Captain).

NEWS FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD

Branches on the Vine

MAY 17 - 23, 2025

Zach Wehner, video production specialist for the Archdiocese of Hartford, directs a group of seminarians who have pledged to pray 100 rosaries each for the "Rosary 100K" challenge being sponsored by the Office of Vocations.

VOCATIONS OFFICE LAUNCHES 'ROSARY 100K' DURING THE MONTH OF MARY

- Story by Shelley Wolf

If you've been telling yourself you really should pray the rosary more often, now is the perfect time to start building the habit. The Archdiocese of Hartford's Office of Vocations is asking Catholics of all ages to commit to praying the rosary for an increase in vocations.

Father Anthony Federico, director of Vocations and director of Seminarians, is asking Catholics to pray 100,000 rosaries as part of a "Rosary 100K" challenge that is kicking off this May, during the Month of Mary.

"I read a quote from Our Lady to St. Dominic. She said something to the effect that if you promote the rosary, 'I will unleash a torrent of vocations.' And so, we are taking her at her word," Father Federico says.

"Together, the archdiocese is going to pray 100,000 rosaries for new vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, religious and consecrated life, holy Catholic marriage and family, and the generous single life – for all the vocations of the Church," he explains.

And everyone is invited. "We are sending the invitation to join the campaign to every parish, every school, every high school, every college, and every apostolate and institution in the archdiocese," he reports.

How will Father Federico be able to keep track of all these prayers, you may ask. Kevin Healy, an archdiocesan seminarian, is creating a web landing page where the archdiocese can keep track of the many pledges that come in. Go to the website hartfordpriest.com, where you can sign up and make a pledge indicating how many rosaries you plan to pray.

Kickoff day was May 11, which was both Mother's Day and the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. "What better way to start?" Father Federico asks. The sizable goal might seem daunting, but the campaign is already off to a good start.

The 20 seminarians of the archdiocese have pledged 100 rosaries each, for a total of 2,000 rosaries, and others made early pledges for a total of 14,000 rosaries before the campaign even launched.

People may choose to pray outdoors in good weather or indoors at church or at home.

"I think it would be great if families could pray the rosary together," the priest says.

Leaders or individuals may choose to announce their intention before each rosary, but Father Federico says not to get hung up on that. "God can do the math," he says in jest. It's primarily about "the spirit of praying the rosary and asking the Blessed Mother to intercede for us," he explains.

"The rosary is at the heart of the Christian life, and I believe it will be the unified collective commitment of the archdiocese that will be the cause of such great fruit. We already saw this when the archdiocese came together and began praying for priestly vocations, how our numbers exploded after that," he reminds everyone. "So, I think there's something in our combined effort," he says, "that really brings out the Lord's generosity."

To submit a pledge, visit hartfordpriest.com/rosary-100k, email vocation@aohct.org, or call the Office of Vocations at 860.761.7456.
