Notes from the Pastor

You learn something new every day! Well, maybe partially. The bulletin publisher proposes timely articles that the editor can use as they see fit. Fr. John Muir writes a weekly article which I don't typically use. But, here we are, in the dog days of summer and it isn't even August yet. So, I thought I'd take a look at his article for this week. The first paragraph caught me off guard. It never occurred to me that Sts. Peter and Paul might have been martyred on the same day. How interesting! I did a little more work, and while it isn't definitive that they were killed on the same day, they were certainly of one mind and one heart in their mission. In any case, here is Fr. John's article for this week:

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

(Practicing) Catholic Recognizing God In Your Ordinary Moments

Some Say

At first, the Apostles try to dodge the question.

When Jesus confronts them – and make no mistake, it is a confrontation – with the question, "Who do you say that I am?" they act like a man whose wife has just asked him if she looks fat in these jeans.

The evasiveness of their answer puts politicians to shame: "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Some say.

But Jesus doesn't let them off easy. He repeats Himself. He wants an answer. "Who do you say that I am?"

They all know the answer. They all believe the answer. And they all know the answer could get them thrown in prison or killed. Only Peter is brave enough to say it: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

People have a lot of opinions about God. They always have. They have a lot of opinions about Jesus and the Bible, about the Catholic Church and the Pope. Some of these opinions are well-founded, well-researched. Some of them are based in ignorance. Many are born of painful misunderstandings, but they are all just that: opinions.

Some say.

We know who Jesus is. We know Who the Eucharist is. We know what the truth is. Amid the chaos and the violence and the excruciating loudness of this fallen world and all the words it shouts into the void about God and Jesus and right and wrong, we know.

But will we answer?

Fourth of July

There will be one Mass on July 4 at 9 am. The Parish Office will be closed. The First Friday Spanish Mass has been rescheduled to Friday, July 11.

ANNUAL 2025 APPEAL

The active phase of the 2025 Annual Appeal will come to a close tomorrow evening and I'd like to thank those families who have already contributed! May the Good Lord bless you for your generosity!

We are coming up on our parish goal, which is $53,390 and is within reach as you can see on the "thermometer" below. There are two financial benefits to our Parish if we achieve this goal in paid contributions by Monday night. First, the Parish is eligible for a 2% reduction in our annual assessment due to the Archdiocese. This amounts to about $8000. Second, all monies pledged over goal as of June 30th and paid by Dec. 31, will make us eligible for a 50% rebate, which comes back to our Parish, unassessed, to be used at our own discretion. The other 50% will be used to support Archdiocesan programs.

If you'd like to contribute to the Appeal and help us meet our goal, here's how:

On-line: The easiest and preferred way to give is on-line on the archdiocesan web page. If you give on-line, make sure you declare your parish as BMT Parish so that we receive credit for your gift. You can use the QR code at the right to access the web page for on-line giving or use the following address in your browser:

www.rcan.org/sharing

By Mail: If you prefer not to use your credit card on-line but would rather write a check, you can either use the pledge card you received at home in January or you can use a pledge envelope which you can find at the entrances to the church.

If you are going to use the pledge card you received in the mail, be sure the parish indicated on the card, above your name, is Bl. Miriam Teresa Parish.

If you are going to use a pledge envelope that you can find in the church vestibule, please complete the information appropriately, make your check payable to the 2025 Annual Appeal, place it in the envelope and return the envelope directly to the Archdiocese.

- DO NOT make checks payable to BMT Parish
- DO NOT return pledge cards or envelope to the Parish
- THE ENVELOPE MUST BE POSTMARKED BY MONDAY, JUNE 30.

2025 Goal is $53,390

Amount Collected: $47,443
Families participating: 143/1800

Thank you and God bless!

"You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." - Mt 16:18-19

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the devil;

may God rebuke him, we humbly pray
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God,

cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
