OUR MISSION

We, the people of Our Lady of the Snows and Church of Saint Benedict, comprise a joyful Catholic Community of the faithful united in Baptism in Christ Jesus the Son, guided by the Father and sustained by the Holy Spirit.

We are dedicated to serving God and one another with love and understanding. We also recognize the diversity of cultural, ethnic and religious traditions among us and extend our hands and hearts to all with care and compassion.

Challenged by the Word of God, we are nourished by the Eucharist and strengthened by prayer and the sacraments to attain our ultimate goal of eternal life and everlasting happiness in complete union with God.

SUSTAINING THIS LABOR OF LOVE

The continued generosity of so many allow Our Lady of the Snows Parish to minister to our parishioners and community. Under the thoughtful guidance of our parish's Finance Council, we have determined the necessary weekly funding to sustain ministries, operations, and facilities to be $16,196. Below is a QR code, which will forward you to our Online Giving site. Thank you!

Prayer for Peace in Ukraine

O Loving God, your Son,
 Jesus Christ, came into the world to do your Will and leave us His Peace.

Through the intercession and example of our Blessed Mother
 Mary, Queen of Peace,
 grant peace to the people of Ukraine, and all humanity distorted by war.

Grant global leaders the wisdom and humility to reflect that peace to the people in Ukraine.

May the panic in their streets give way to the sound of children playing, and the sounds of bombs, guns and sirens give way to songs of hope.

Inspire our thoughts, words and deeds to bear witness to your presence in our midst.

As we prepare to open our hearts and homes to those in need, may your Holy Spirit fill us with every grace and blessing so that we may pursue what leads to peace for all humanity.

*Mary, Queen of Peace,
 Pray for Us!*

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

FIRST READING

JOSHUA 5:9A, 10-12

The Lord said to Joshua, "Today I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you." While the Israelites were encamped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth of the month. On the day after the Passover, they ate of the produce of the land in the form of unleavened cakes and parched grain. On that same day after the Passover, on which they ate of the produce of the land, the manna ceased. No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 34

SECOND READING

2 COR 5:17-21

Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come. And all this is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. So we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL

LUKE 15:1-3, 11-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them Jesus addressed this parable: "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.' So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation.

When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."' "

So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.'

Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.'

He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.' "

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

LAUDATO SI' AND ME

In conjunction with St. Gregory's Church, students in grades 5-8 and their families are invited to a creative session that explores Laudato Si'. Specifically, we will discuss the idea of stewardship, the call to love our neighbor, and ways to put the call from Pope Francis into action. Email Sue Burke to register sueburke@olsparish.net, or call the Parish Center at 570-586-1741.

God's love story reveals itself in our stories, experiences, and aspirations. We are all prodigal sons and daughters. There are many times in our lives when we would "sell our souls" in order to pursue our passions. We pursued what we wanted without regard for others or God. We have sowed our oats, thrown ourselves into careless pleasures, spent what we know we ought to have saved, turned our backs on those we love and abused gifts we have been given. We even hit bottom and realized the silliness and self-destruction of it all. We needed to come home. We knew we erred and needed a gentle presence to show us God's unconditional love. This wayward journey home changed us.

As much as we need to be welcomed, we are also the one who needs to do the welcoming and mercy giving. Those we love need our guidance, but they don't always take it. We know that what they are doing is off the mark, self-destructive and wrong. We have to let them go and let it happen, even though they might get hurt. As we wait and hope, they choose to make their way back to us. They don't need us to judge them. They have done enough of that to themselves. We immediately embrace them and are just happy they're home. God uses us to help heal them. Knowing how much we craved understanding and forgiveness ourselves, we can now freely give it away. God uses what he has taught us to teach others.

We are also the entitled ones. At least we "think" we are entitled. After all, we work hard for what we have. We cannot get our heads around the idea that someone can get something that I really deserve! If I do what I'm supposed to do, I ought to be rewarded for that, right? If I do something wrong, I ought to pay the consequences. This is justice, isn't it? This is not God's justice. God is all about love, mercy, compassion, and forgiveness. God's justice is love freely given without merit. We carry the stories of the prodigal son, the unconditional forgiving father, and the entitled angry brother with us. When we make friends with all three, humbly telling those stories to others makes us Christ's ambassadors.

LOOKING BACK AT FIRST PENANCE

We offer sincere congratulations to the 59 young girls and boys who received First Penance last Saturday. Together with their families and loved ones, we had a joyous event at the Church of Saint Benedict as they received this sacrament in communion together.

Pray for all as they now more fully embrace our faith!

HEARTS THAT CARE

CONNECTIONS OF KINDNESS:

This outreach program ministers to senior parishioners through check-in calls made by parish volunteers.

FOOD PANTRY: At both churches and the Parish Center, we accept donations of non-perishable food items to be donated to local families.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT: Meets the first Wednesday of each month.

For more info or to join any of our ministries, call the Parish Center at 570-586-1741.

COMMUNION CALLS: Bringing Communion to the homebound will return in the near future!

LOCAL OUTREACH: Just a brief visit or connection with elderly, ailing, and lonely parishioners can make all the difference to brighten their day!

OUR BULLETIN: This bulletin is mailed and e-mailed to many senior parishioners weekly to keep all connected to OLS Parish.

OTHER WAYS TO SERVE

ROCCO'S GARDEN CLUB:

Dedicated volunteers keep the grounds of Our Lady of the Snows pristine and beautiful in every season

CSB BEAUTIFICATION TEAM:

These caring souls help maintain the landscaping and grounds surrounding the picturesque St. Benedict's Church.

HOUSE OF GOD CLEANERS:

Hardworking volunteers regularly clean & polish the interiors of both churches.
