December 27, 2020

THE HOLY FAMILY

"For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples."
- Lk 2:30-31

Pope Francis (@Pontifex)

To pray is to light a candle in the darkness. #Prayer rouses us from the tepidness of a purely horizontal existence, lifts our gaze to higher things, makes us attuned to the Lord, allows God to be close to us; it frees us from our solitude and gives us hope.

We welcome those who are new to our faith community; those returning to the Catholic Church or those simply visiting with us today. We are blessed to have you with us and are glad you are here!

If you would like to learn more about our parish or register as a parishioner of Our Lady of Mercy Church, we invite you to contact us, 301-365-1415 or at church@olom.org.

You may also go to our website - www.olom.org to download our registration form or pick up a brochure in the main entrance of the church.

Our Mission

We are a Catholic community of followers of Christ who desire to be ever more deeply rooted in the presence and power of God. We are guided and empowered by the Holy Spirit, the Word of God and the tradition of the Church. We welcome all to join us as we reach out in justice and love to build God's kingdom.

5 THINGS I LEARNED FROM MOE

By Bishop William Byrne

My previous parish assignment was St. Peter's on Capitol Hill. In a city parish, one encounters many different types of people. From Members of Congress to the homeless, the Hill offers a powerful experience of the Body of Christ in all His diversity. I learned that a parishioner and friend, Maurice Hawkins, had died. Moe was 72 when he passed of a heart attack. Formerly homeless, through the work of amazing case workers and the love and support of parishioners from St. Peter's, Moe lived in city housing and had a rich life. Moe was developmentally different and one of the most remarkable men I have ever met.

I don't cry easily. However, when I learned of Moe's passing, some tears flowed. I know it sounds cliché, but Moe was the face of Christ. He was like an angel, albeit one dressed in two coats and two hats and carrying a walking stick on the hottest day of the year. The catch is that, unlike the times we may use such phrases to describe other people, in Moe they are actually all true. I remember him sitting in the church, praying his rosary, and imagining his prayers going straight up to Heaven (or Jesus, our Heavenly Father, the Blessed Mother, etc.). His simple faith made me a better man and priest. So, both in homage to this gentle man, and in gratitude for his blessing to all who were privileged to know him, I offer you five things I learned from Moe.

Blessings – Moe would come to the Saturday 5 pm Mass each week. After Mass, he would come to the sacristy and ask me to bless various items. Each week he would present some set of items he had collected: a bunch of clovers, a Barbie doll head, a jar, a stick, bark from the tree the parish had to cut down, a ring from a bubble gum machine. He saw them all as beautiful and wanted God's blessing for them. From Moe I learned to never take for granted the little and unexpected treasures of life.

Art - Among the consistent items to be blessed were photos of his latest art display. Moe would have arranged a table in his apartment with images that he had artistically enhanced. A typical display might include photos of Dr. Martin Luther King, a Greek goddess--usually Aphrodite-- an image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a holy card of Mother Theresa, a crucifix, and plastic flowers in a vase. Moe would take pictures and then get them blown up at CVS. Then I would bless them and he would gift them to others. The photos were beautiful, quirky, and sweet all at once. But above all, they were art. Moe was an artist. From Moe I learned to seek the beauty in life: go to a museum, read a poem, draw a picture.

Realize Your Blessings - An artist seeks truth and beauty and gives it back to the world. Moe had a fascination with history and mythology. He often asked me to pray that he could read and write better. That request always broke my heart. To have the desire and the love of learning and sharing that love with others, only to meet a wall that was not climbable, seemed tragic in my limited estimation. From Moe I learned to remember the simplest blessings and use them for the good of others.

Joy of Helping - After Mass, Moe would go down to our parish hall and empty the trash, wipe down the toilets, and even scrub the stove. I never asked him, nor expected him to do this, but he would always help as his gift to his family at St. Peter's. He did it for Jesus. From Moe I learned to realize the most humble tasks are often the most powerful ways to serve the Lord.

Remember Eternity - Each time Moe would come for a visit, he would say "Don't say goodbye. Say see you later." After that he would instruct me to say "goodnight" to whatever dog I had at the time: Cleo, Maggie, Mary Cole or Roo. One night more than a year after Cleo had passed, Moe said, "Say Goodnight to Cleo." I reminded him that Cleo was gone now. He told me, "I know. She walks me home every night." I am sure she walked him home one final and wondrous time. From Moe I learned to remember that God created us for eternity.

The final "5 things" for Our Lady of Mercy -- saving the best for last. Congratulations Bishop Byrne!

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH

The measure of success

Fruitfulness is a sign that we're doing something right. Plant a seed, water it, give it light, and it brings forth a shoot. Neglect it, and get nothing. We measure success in terms of fruitfulness: schooling completed, jobs held, relationships that endure, children raised, financial security, years lived, virtues practiced. God blessed Abram with wealth and years, but to that old man, the only true measure of success was a child. By what standard do you evaluate your life's worth? What's required for you to say in the end: "Lord, now you let your servant go in peace"?

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14; Colossians 3:12-21; Luke 2:22-40; or Genesis 15:1-6; 21:1-3; Hebrews 11:8, 11-12, 17-19; Luke 2:22-40 (17). "But Abram said, 'O Lord GOD, what good will your gifts be, if I keep on being childless?'"

Monday, December 28, 2020

FEAST OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS, MARTYRS

Suffer little children

On the heels of the joyful celebration of the birth of our Savior, we remember the Holy Innocents—all the baby boys who were murdered by Herod in his attempt to kill the child Jesus. Matthew quotes Jeremiah: "A voice was heard in Ramah, sobbing and loud lamentation; Rachel weeping for her children . . ." Console today's mourning mothers by fighting for children's rights and protections.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 1:5—2:2; Matthew 2:13-18 (698). "My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin."

Tuesday, December 29, 2020

FIFTH DAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD; MEMORIAL OF THOMAS BECKET, BISHOP, MARTYR

Choosing right vs. might

Thomas Becket found himself having to choose between an earthly king and Christ the King. The cleric Thomas befriended England's Henry II—leading Henry to appoint him chancellor. Later, when Henry spotted a chance to wield power over church affairs, he named his friend the archbishop of Canterbury. But Thomas would not go along with Henry's plans. Repercussions followed, and in 1170 Thomas was brutally murdered—in Canterbury Cathedral—by the king's men. Though perhaps with less dramatic outcomes, standing up for your convictions may cost you, too. Are you willing to pay the price?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 2:3-11; Luke 2:22-35 (202). "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many."

SIXTH DAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

The party never ends

On this sixth day of the Octave, the Christmas celebration continues. Or it can—even if the culture around us has moved on. Especially in pandemic days, you may feel challenged to find hope and joy in the promise that God is with us. So celebrate by sharing that Divine Love, however you feel able to. Bake and share cookies, make a call to someone you may have overlooked this busy season, write a note of gratitude to someone who challenges you, or contribute to an organization that cares for mothers and children in this season of the Holy Family. Take time in prayer to recollect and give thanks for any awareness of God's presence in recent days. Loving God, help me remember that Christmas is not a day but rather a season that invites me to see you at work in my life every day.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 2:12-17; Luke 2:36-40 (203). "And coming forward at that very time, [Anna] gave thanks to God and spoke about the child."

Thursday, December 31, 2020

SEVENTH DAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

The light still shines

We might well ring out a difficult year with the words of today's psalmist: "Let the heavens be glad and the Earth rejoice!" Rejoicing implies an expectation of better things to come, placing us firmly within the Christian virtue of hope. Christians are hopeful for many reasons, starting with the fact that Jesus's death led to resurrection. The church teaches, too, that hope lies in building the kingdom of God on Earth, "as it is in heaven." Lift up your hopes for 2021 to God, and be ready to work for them with God's grace.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 2:18-21; John 1:1-18 (204). "The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it."

WORLD DAY OF PEACE; OCTAVE DAY OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD; SOLEMNITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, THE MOTHER OF GOD

Renew the face of the Earth

We have longed for the year 2020 to be over, to move away from the pandemics that have wounded us collectively and individually. With 2021 on the calendar now, it feels like maybe, just maybe we can start anew at some point. Given the chance, we, along with all of creation, have the capacity to renew, that is, to be "new again"—not only each year but each moment. An essential ingredient to renewal is peace. The church calls us to follow Christ the Way of Peace, as Pope Benedict said on this day in 2007, "with hearts full of hope, notwithstanding the dangers and difficulties that surround us." Let us pray for and choose peace for ourselves and for the world in all that we renew this year.

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 6:22-27; Galatians 4:4-7; Luke 2:16-21 (18). "Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart."

MEMORIAL OF BASIL THE GREAT AND GREGORY NAZIANZEN, BISHOPS, DOCTORS OF THE CHURCH

Spiritual friendship lasts for ages

Spiritual friendship is one of the greatest gifts of life in a faith community. Basil and Gregory, fourth-century patriarchs of the Eastern Church, had such a friendship and spurred each other on to great accomplishments and service in their spiritual lives. We all need community and spiritual support as we work through the mysteries of our own personal lives and the challenges presented by a suffering world. Who can you count on for support and encouragement in these hard times? Do your resolutions for this new year include cultivation of spiritual community and friendships?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 John 2:22-28; John 1:19-28 (205). "All the ends of the Earth have seen the salvation by our God."

PRAYER FOR BISHOP BYRNE ON THE OCCASION OF HIS ORDINATION (DECEMBER 14, 2020)

God, eternal shepherd, you tend your Church in many ways and rule us with love. You have chosen your servant, Bishop William Byrne, to be a shepherd of your flock in Springfield, Massachusetts. Give him a spirit of courage and right judgment, a spirit of knowledge and love. By governing with fidelity those entrusted to his care, may he build your Church as a sign of salvation for the world. Amen.

Although we are oh so many miles away from home, I do believe the excitement of Springfield was shared and experienced with all back in Potomac.

At a rare event, the Cathedral of Springfield in the early hours of the afternoon gathered two dioceses together to celebrate the new bishop!

Surrounded by his brother priests of Washington and his family, all our prayer and work offered for Bishop Byrne culminated in a beautiful send off as he officially became the 10th Bishop of Springfield.

Our Lady of Mercy was named on multiple occasions throughout the Mass and I can only imagine the wealth of memories that arose within his heart for they began to arise in mine (only 6 months worth and not 6 years)!

Thank you Mercy for accompanying Bishop Byrne during his time of transition to the office of Bishop.

Blessings, Fr. Joe

Thank You Fr. Bill Garrett, OP

As we await on the arrival of our new pastor, Fr. Bill Garrett, OP has graciously agreed to be in residence and help with the sacramental duties of Our Lady of Mercy parish. This is not Fr. Bill's first visit to Mercy. You may recognize him from our previous Mercy Parish Mission where he preached, said Masses and offered confession. Fr. Bill entered the Order of Preachers in 1988 and was ordained a priest in 1994. He has a masters degree in spiritual theology from the Angelicum in Rome. He has served as a parochial vicar, campus minister and director of vocations. Fr. Bill has preached in nearly 200 parishes throughout the United States and Canada using his musical abilities on piano and guitar. Welcome Fr. Bill!

Our New Pastor!

Archbishop Gregory has appointed Msgr. Charles Antonicelli to become the pastor of Our Lady of Mercy after a short seven months as pastor of St. Patrick in Washington, DC and Vice President for Mission for Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington. Ordained as a priest of the Archdiocese of Washington in 1993, Msgr. Antonicelli has served as Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia since 2018. In addition, he served as pastor of Annunciation Parish in Washington, St. Thomas Apostle Parish in Washington, and St. Joseph Parish on Capitol Hill. He also served briefly as an administrator of St. Patrick Parish in Rockville.

A native of Jersey City, he earned a political science degree at Boston College, and then relocated to Washington to earn a law degree at the Columbus School of Law at The Catholic University of America. After working as an assistant corporation counsel for Jersey City, and as an associate attorney at two law firms, he entered the seminary and studied at the Pontificia North American College in Rome, where he earned a licentiate degree in moral theology at the Angelicum. He later earned a licentiate degree in canon law from Catholic University.

Shortly after his ordination, he served as a parochial vicar at the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Washington and later at St. Andrew Apostle Parish in Silver Spring. In 1998, then-Cardinal James Hickey appointed him to serve as a Vice Chancellor, and he continued in that position until 2006. In 2006, Pope Benedict XVI named Father Antonicelli as a chaplain to His Holiness, with the title "monsignor."

Msgr. Antonicelli has served as a judge on the archdiocese's Metropolitan Tribunal, and as Episcopal Vicar for Canonical Services. He also taught at CUA's Columbus School of Law from 2002-04.

We will see Fr. Charles in January 2021. Happy New Year!

Sustainability Tip of the Week:Indoor air pollution.

Did you know that the air inside the typical home can be up to five times more polluted than outside air? Get more houseplants, which are air-cleaning workhorses and consider an upgrade for your furnace filters.

The San Miguel School

Save the date this winter for a very special evening benefitting the San Miguel School on Saturday, February 20th at 6:30 pm!

Our Annual Scholarship Benefit has gone virtual and you won't want to miss this meaningful event that gives so many boys and their families a chance to succeed.

The San Miguel School is an independent, tuition-free, Catholic Middle School located just a few miles from downtown Silver Spring and serves economically disadvantaged Latino males in grades 6 - 8. San Miguel students receive a rigorous, values-based education in a joyous environment, with impressive outcomes. San Miguel Graduates go on to study at local high schools including St. John's, Georgetown Prep, Gonzaga, DeMatha, St. Alban's, Episcopal, Georgetown Day, Maret, St. Stephens/St. Agnes, and Don Bosco.

Sponsorship levels begin at $5,000 to partially assist a student and go to $15,000 for a full year's tuition. Any amount of giving is appreciated and your generosity makes a direct impact on these students and the lives around them.

To learn more about San Miguel or for questions regarding the Benefit and how you can participate whether through a sponsorship or through our Virtual Auction, please contact the school at 202-232-8345.
